Love In The Post From Plato To Derrida The Screenplay And Commentary:

Love in the Post: From Plato to Derrida Martin McQuillan, Joanna Callaghan, 2014-10-03 Love in the Post 2013 is inspired by Jacques Derrida's book The Post Card. Like the book, the film plays with fact and fiction, weaving together the stories of a scholar of literature and a film director alongside insights from critics and philosophers. Theo Marks works in a university department that is soon to be closed. His wife Sophie is enigmatic and distant. In analysis, filmmaker Joanna struggles to make a film about The Post Card. These people are set on a collision course prompted by a series of letters that will change their lives. The film features a never-before-seen interview with Derrida alongside contributions from Geoffrey Bennington, Ellen Burt Catherin Malabou, J Hillis Miller, and Samuel Weber. Alongside the original screenplay, Martin McQuillan provides an extended commentary on Derrida's original text, the film, and its making. Joanna Callaghan reflects on her practice as a filmmaker and her engagement with philosophy as a director. The volume concludes with interviews between McQuillan and five leading Derrida scholars.

Deconstruction, Feminism, Film Sarah Dillon, 2019-01-22 This book probes the feminist faultlines in Derrida's thought and generates original feminist insight into key concerns of contemporary film studies, including spectatorship, realism vs. artifice, narrative adaptation, auto biography, and the still.

Oxi: An Act of Resistance Ken McMullen, Martin McQuillan, 2015-10-21 Oxi Gr Determiner lit No fig Resistance pronounced ochi retells Sophocles' Antigone through the contemporary Greek crisis and modern European philosophy. A collaboration between the renowned British auteur Ken McMullen and the literary theorist Martin McQuillan, the film draws upon and responds to the importance of the Antigone of modern thought: Hegel, Arendt, Lacan, Derrida, Butler, while coming up close to the politics of the street and the malign effects of the austerity experiment in Greece today. The screenplay weaves together a range of idioms, including performance, fiction, documentary, interview, and literary collage. The result is an intensely moving reflection on the tragedy of austerity today, with contributions from Hélène Cixous, Étienne Balibar, and Antonio Negri, as well as several significant figures in Greek cultural life. The volume includes full transcripts of the interviews with Cixous, Balibar, and Negri, and a previously unpublished interview with Jacques Derrida on the question of Oedipus, as well as critical commentary from the filmmakers.

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing, 2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film: the religious significance of film technique. Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory, Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation. Downing cites Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions. This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film.

The Traces of Jacques Derrida's Cinema Timothy Holland, 2024 Situated at the intersection of film and media studies, literary theory, and continental philosophy, The Traces of Jacques Derrida's Cinema provides a trenchant account of the role of cinema in the oeuvre of one of the most influential philosophers of the twentieth century Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 The book is animated by Derrida s self confessed passion for the movies his reluctance to write about film despite the range of his corpus and the generative encounters arising between his legacy and the field of film and media studies as a result Given the expanse of its references interdisciplinarity and consideration of Derrida s approach to the experience of both spectatorship and the act of being filmed The Traces of Jacques Derrida s Cinema contributes to the ongoing close analyses of the philosopher s work while also providing a rigorous introduction to deconstruction Author Timothy Holland interweaves historical and speculative modes of research and writing to articulate the peripheral yet surprisingly crucial place of the cinematic medium for Derrida and his philosophical enterprise The outcome is a meticulously detailed survey of the centers and margins of Derrida s oeuvre that include forays into such terrain as his notable appearances in films an unrealized project on cinema and belief that Derrida proposed in a 2001 interview the correspondences between the strategies of deconstruction and the traditions homecomings and wordplay of David Lynch s cinematic media and the questions wedded to the future of film studies amid the vicissitudes of the modern virtual university Ultimately Holland pursues the thinking activated by the flickering of Derrida s cinema not only the absence and presence of film in Derrida s professional and personal life but also the rigor of academic discourse and the pleasures of the movies ghosts and technology religious faith and scientific knowledge and ruination and survival as a critical chance for reflection

After Derrida Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2018-05-31 This collection of essays explores the main concepts and methods of reading launched by French philosopher Jacques Derrida who died in 2004 Derrida exerted a huge influence on literary critics in the 1980s but later there was a backlash against his theories Today one witnesses a general return to his way of reading literature the rationale of which is detailed and explained in the essays The authors both well known and younger specialists give many precise examples of how Derrida who always remained at the cusp between literature and philosophy posed fundamental questions and thus changed the field of literary criticism especially with regard to poetry The contributors also highlight the way Derrida made spectacular interventions in feminism psychoanalytic studies animal studies digital humanities and post colonial studies

Thinking Out of Sight Jacques Derrida, 2024-05-31 Jacques Derrida remains a leading voice of philosophy his works still resonating today and for more than three decades one of the main sites of Derridean deconstruction has been the arts Collecting nineteen texts spanning from 1979 to 2004 Thinking out of Sight brings to light Derrida s most inventive ideas about the making of visual artworks The book is divided into three sections The first demonstrates Derrida s preoccupation with visibility image and space The second contains interviews and collaborations with artists on topics ranging from the politics of color to the components of painting Finally the book delves into Derrida s writings on photography video cinema and theater ending with a text published just before his death about his complex relationship to his own image With many texts appearing for the first time in English Thinking out of Sight helps us better understand the critique of representation and visibility throughout
