How did Puerto Ricans feel about U.S. control?

Puerto Rico became an American territory after control of the Spanish-American War. American forces landed in Puerto Rico in July, 1898. The commanding officer ordered that the Americans were there to protect the Puerto Ricans, that other U.S. military officers treated the Puerto Ricans. They spoke and acted as children and the United States should protect children, like Puerto Ricans.

People in Puerto Rico wanted the military government to leave. Congress passed the Foraker Act which ended military rule and set up a provisional government.

The United States kept control over the people and their government. In 1900 Congress, Congress made Puerto Rico a U.S. colony.

1. Why did some Puerto Ricans want U.S. control of their government?

Puerto Ricans wanted U.S. control of their government because they wanted to be Americans and participate in the United States government.
