Guide For Preaching:

From Pew to Pulpit Clifton F. Guthrie, 2010-11-01 A down to earth practical introduction to the ins and outs of preaching for lay preachers bivocational pastors and others newly arrived in the pulpit Recent years have seen a considerable increase in the amount of financial resources required to support a full time pastor in the local congregation In addition large numbers of full time seminary trained clergy are retiring without commensurate numbers of new clergy able to take their place As a result of these trends a large number of lay preachers and bivocational pastors have assumed the principal responsibility for filling the pulpit week by week in local churches Most of these individuals observes Clifton Guthrie can draw on a wealth of life experiences as well as strong intuitive skills in knowing what makes a good sermon having listened to them much of their lives What they often don't bring to the pulpit however is specific detailed instruction in the how to's of preaching That is precisely what this brief practical guide to preaching has to offer Written with the needs of those for whom preaching is not their sole or primary occupation in mind it begins by emphasizing what every preacher brings to the pulpit an idea of what makes a sermon particularly moving or memorable to them From there the book moves into short chapters on choosing an appropriate biblical text or sermon topic learning how to listen to one's first impressions of what a text means moving from text or topic to the sermon itself while keeping the listeners needs firmly in mind making thorough and engaging use of stories in the sermon and delivering with passion and conviction The book concludes with helpful suggestions for resources including Bibles commentaries other print resources and websites

Davidson JR., George A. Buttrick, 2020-08-18 Does the preacher now impress us as a legate of the skies To many he is a pathetic figure an anachronism a stage joke an inoffensive little person jostled by the crowd and wearing the expression of a startled rabbit With one hand he holds a circular hat on a bewildered head and with the other desperately clutches an umbrella The crowd pushes him from the sidewalk the traffic shoots him back into the crowd Some curse him a few laugh most are unaware of his existence George Buttrick Lyman Beecher Lectures 1931 Whether we need preaching has been asked for hundreds of years long before an age of media saturation from streaming 24 hour news entertainment politics and sports This question hounded George Buttrick one of the most profound preachers of the twentieth century and often compared with Billy Graham Buttrick offers a compelling answer to the question but his answer remained hidden for 40 years until now In George Buttrick's Guide to Preaching the Gospel we learn why the world needs competent preachers what the preacher must preach about and how the preacher goes about creating the sermon with daily discipline and several practiced skills including research charting outlining writing and performance These writings have never been published before and were found by his grandchildren after his death A brief biography of Buttrick introduces this master orator and professor to readers who do not know his work Planning Your Preaching Stephen Nelson Rummage, A pastor created and field tested easily adaptable method for planning a comprehensive preaching ministry Preaching Ronald Allen, 2002 Preaching it sounds like such a easy thing to do All you have to do is step into the pulpit and talk for 20 minutes right Anyone who's ever stepped into that pulpit knows that preaching is anything but easy Speaking a word from God that is grounded in the biblical witness theologically responsible and true to contemporary experience is one of the most difficult things one can do Advice on how to do this is as old as preaching itself and there are as many opinions on preaching as there are preachers Where do those who have been called to the ministry of proclamation begin What are the basic understandings and practices that anyone who proposes to preach should know In this new addition to the Essential Guides series Ronald Allen seeks to answer these basic questions about preaching He does so through the use of an inductive method which is simply to say that he starts with a sermon itself and uses that sermon to illustrate the process of moving from the first thoughts about what one will preach to the delivery of an actual sermon itself Each chapter will raise a question about the sample sermon that leads into a broader discussion of the practical and theoretical issues that this particular aspect of the sermon raises e g What is the good news in this sermon What is the significance of this news for the congregation Does the preacher offer a clear and sensible interpretation of the biblical text or the topic Written with the needs of students in both traditional M Div classes and non degree ministry training programs in mind Preaching An Essential Guide will be an indispensable companion for all the others who seek to rightly explain the word of truth Ronald J Allen is Professor of Homiletics at Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana
