Gravity and Grace Joseph Sittler, 2004-11-15 This newly revised edition provides insights from one of the leading Lutheran theologians of the twentieth century The essays and reflections gathered in this volume provoke readers to think about and discuss topics such as risk and faith nature and grace the Word of God and genuine theology real education the beauty and meaning of language necessary personal choices aging and social issues Study questions are provided to encourage group discussion

Living Lutheran Dave Daubert, 2007-01-01 Kelly Fryer's book Reclaiming the L Word introduced one congregation's journey through renewal Now Dave Daubert provides a practical how to guide that will enable church leaders to help individual congregations walk through the process for themselves Creative and informative the book provides a straightforward approach that helps congregations reclaim Lutheran tradition for the 21st century Includes questions for individual or group reflection and an additional resources section

Living in the Kingdom Alvin N. Rogness, This revised and updated classic by beloved theologian Alvin N Rogness explores questions like What does it mean to be a responsible citizen of God's kingdom And how do the teachings of the Bible and the church help us meet the often perplexing problems of life Presenting clear and concise responses to dozens of questions this resource is equally valuable for adults and youth May be used in adult education confirmation and new member classes

God in the Raging Waters Paul Blom, Hurricanes Katrina and Rita caused enormous damage and loss of life in the Gulf Coast region in late summer and fall of 2005 Lutherans living in the region and church buildings near the destruction were hit with great losses The crisis called forth an outpouring of aid and service that continues even today The book tells the story of how the Lutheran church and its people have responded to the suffering of those most affected by the storms Following Jesus admonition to love and serve those in need the church has worked in partnership with synods and congregations to bring hope and healing to many in the region Included are powerful firsthand accounts insightful theological reflections questions for group use A portion of the proceeds of each book will be donated to the Texas Louisiana Gulf Coast Synod Disaster Relief Fund

Ending Poverty Nancy Maeker, Peter Rogness, Ending Poverty invites people from varied faith backgrounds to commit themselves to the study of poverty issues and to just action on behalf of those who experience poverty and prejudice due to class Stories from four different settings help define poverty recognize communities of poverty explore the hidden culture of class and take a deeper systems view that shows how we are all one community A practical guide for congregational study groups this book is a call to action on behalf of the poor

Reclaiming the "C" Word Kelly A. Fryer, 2006-04-24 God is up to something God is on a mission to save and bless the world and God calls the church to be part of this mission That means getting focused setting people free taking action expecting surprises and being hopeful A church on God's mission isn't a building or a building plus a pastor It's people people who carry out God's mission in the world Building on her bestselling book Reclaiming the L Word Kelly A Fryer gives practical advice on how to transform our idea of church and what that means for our lives as Christians Holy Purpose Carolyn Mowchan, A Lutheran look at God's purposes for our lives

Celebrating Nature by Faith H. Paul Santmire, 2020-09-09 Sometimes it is helpful to take one step backward in order to take two steps forward In this insightful volume H Paul Santmire draws on his long standing and widely recognized engagement with ecological theology to propose that the traditions of the Protestant Reformation rightly read offer rich resources today for those who are struggling to move forward to respond theologically to the crisis of a planet in peril and thereby to celebrate nature by faith
