Carpooling with God Loren T. Taylor, 2008-04 There are many pressures on everyone in the workforce The desire to get ahead can push anyone to consider cutting a few ethical corners You cannot truly measure yourself only by what you have achieved More important is what you as a person have become in the process Carpooling With God is a simple story written about a character named Jim Fletcher who inadvertently invites God to come to work with him Jim is dissatisfied with his life and God appears as a special friend who helps him to point his life in the right direction. The book is divided into ten chapters each one representing a step in the process and become the elements of a special prayer that readers are encouraged to take with them and read often as a reminder Carpool with God each and every day and there is nothing that can stop you Loren Taylor is President of his own consulting and invention business Taylored Concepts LLC working closely with major companies in the U S and around the world He has over 30 years of experience largely as an executive in major corporations He has worked for six companies in four industries ranging in size from start up to well over two billion dollars Taylor experienced a strong Christian upbringing and remains a very active member of the United Methodist Church Taylor has augmented his active involvement with his religion by attending many different types of religious services and by extensive and exhaustive study Taylor was born in New Jersey graduated from Albright College with an A B Degree and from Rutgers University with an M B A in Marketing He is married with two children and lives in New Jersey and is a very active Boy Scout God's Little Daughters Ji Li, 2015-06-01 God's Little Daughters examines a set of letters written by Chinese leader Catholic women from a small village in Manchuria to their French missionary Father Lin or Dominique Maurice Pourqui who in 1870 had returned to France in poor health after spending twenty three years at the local mission of the Soci t des Missions Etrang res de Paris MEP The letters were from three sisters of the Du family who had taken religious vows and committed themselves to a life of contemplation and worship that allowed them rare privacy and the opportunity to learn to read and write Inspired by a close reading of the letters Ji Li explores how French Catholic missionaries of the MEP translated and disseminated their Christian message in northeast China from the mid 19th to the early 20th centuries and how these converts interpreted and transformed their Catholic faith to articulate an awareness of self The interplay of religious experience rhetorical skill and gender relations revealed in the letters allow us to reconstruct the neglected voices of Catholic women in rural China God's Little Instruction Book for Couples Honor Books, 2003-03 Love is friendship set on fire Some books have quotes and some have Scripture but God's Little Instruction Book for Couples has both and provides not just human insight but also the wisdom of God into one of life s most daunting challenges marriage This little
