Going Real: The Value of Design in the Era of PostCapitalism Giovanni Innella,Marco Petroni,2019-10-31 In the age of post capitalism what is the value of design Is value defined by economic potential Or is it something far less tangible Now more than ever design has the ability to engage us in economic political and cultural debate to actively resist the monotony of daily life and to counteract the precarious situation on which modern society seems to rest Positioning itself as a lens through which to view the world design allows us and in some cases even forces us to reflect on the many aspects of the societies in which we live Divided into three chapters GOING REAL positions itself in relation to the works of Marc Jongen Maurizio Lazzarato Adam Greenfield and Tiziana Terranova among others However unlike the abovementioned authors this book draws on the works of selected designers and artists to reflect on the economic political and cultural aspects of our post capitalist societies Beginning with an in depth case study of Detroit during the downfall of the industrial era this volume moves on to a timely and provocative insight into the human crises surrounding current migration trends with a particular focus on Calais Finally in the third chapter the human body itself is laid bare as the authors analyse how and why the most personal of spaces became not only the ultimate marketplace for businesses but also an object of control for governments
