

Step 3

Powder

For a matte finish, long wear, apply loose powder in a light, effortless way for subtle, if any, coverage. Set your complexion using the loose powder brush in a wide, circular path.

Apply powder to the correct shade For your skin tone, choose the shade of the face using a powder puff or powder brush.

Pat the powder lightly onto your skin, especially around the hairline.

Step 4

Blush

Smile and apply a natural shade of blush to the apples of cheeks. Blend up toward the hairline, then downward to soften the smile.

For long-lasting results Layer a ring of fingertip blush on top.

For all-day glow Dust a delicate powder on the cheekbones with a fine powder brush, or use a smaller brush applied with your finger.

Tap or blow off any extra powder. Blush that has been applied before applying concealer may bleed into the concealer. Use light layers that are correctable with your fingertips.

Put fingertips under chin and gently press away the skin.

Brush a neutral shade of eye shadow down the crease along the eye, especially toward the inner corner. Sweep the rest of the eye.

Step 5

Lipstick

Start with clean, smooth lips.

Neutral lipstick shades and sheer formulas can be applied directly from the tube. Use a lip brush to apply darker or bolder colors, which require precise application.

Use the outermost part of your lip and gently overdraw on fading edges. The outer lip lining may not follow exactly to the slightly outer than just line.

For fuller lips, lips should light to medium. For thin lips, use a darker shade. There is a balancing effect.

Step 6

Lip Liner

The softest natural-looking definition can be kept out of line drawing. Use just a lip brush with a lip liner after applying lipstick. Use a lip brush to define and blend and hold edges.

To make your lipstick glow longer-lasting, use a lip brush to apply a light layer of gloss before applying lipstick.
