Making America Righteous Again From Bitterness To A Delight:

The Artistry of Anger Linda M. Grasso, 2003-04-03 In this compelling interdisciplinary study Linda Grasso demonstrates that using anger as a mode of analysis and the basis of an aesthetic transforms our understanding of American women's literary history Exploring how black and white nineteenth century women writers defined expressed and dramatized anger Grasso reconceptualizes antebellum women's writing and illuminates an unrecognized tradition of discontent in American literature She maintains that two equally powerful forces shaped this tradition women's anger at their exclusion from the democratic promise of America and the cultural prohibition against its public articulation Grasso challenges the common notion that nineteenth century women's writing is confined to domestic themes and shows instead how women channeled their anger into art that addresses complex political issues such as slavery nation building gender arrangements and race relations Cutting across racial and genre boundaries she considers works by Lydia Maria Child Maria W Stewart Fanny Fern and Harriet Wilson as superb examples of the artistry of angry expression Transforming their anger through literary imagination these writers bequeathed their vision of an alternative America both to their contemporaries and to subsequent generations

The American Friend, 1926 The Powerful Woman in America and Europe Hisham Akram Alshammary, 2017-04-27 The nineteenth century writers such as George Eliot opened the eyes of Englishmen and Europeans to their own history with their historical romances Ivanhoe and Kenilworth for example are imaginative reconstructions of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Many readers however think that certain novelists are at their best in their handling of their minority stories Later writers followed the brilliant example of the idealistic novelist Dickens who wrote A Tale of Two Cities and others Today historical romances are a popular kind of fiction Witness the large number of American novels that deal with our own past George Eliot Mary Anne Evans agitated the other followers of literature to write in more frank and truthful pedagogical learning This a way for D H Lawrence and Joseph Conrad to write to people in a pedagogical way and because of this we do not understand immediately what is going on in the novels of D H Lawrence But Virginia Woolf preferred the intelligent reader those who have the ability to think deeply after reading cautiously She was the leading novelist in the stream of consciousness technique made popular after World War I When we read works by the novelists D H Lawrence and Joseph Conrad we feel that their goal is to write about women as great and productive in every society
