Children of Faith Sandra L. Haner,Stacey W. Smith,2011-04-15 If you are looking for a quality childrens Bible study with a proven track record then Stacey Smith's Children of Faith is just what you need. For many years we incorporated Children of Faith into our church's curriculum with tremendous success. The simple structure and solid biblically based lessons were easy to use and gave the children a Christian foundation for life. Stacey is a wonderful teacher, mother, and homeschooler and a superb writer you can count on. Dr. Randy Colver, author, pastor, and teacher at Coweta Community Church, I home schooled my four children for twelve years while using Stacey's Children of Faith as my Bible curriculum. The Scriptures became very practical and well understood as we studied, prayed, and used the crafts. My children used the prayer guide for years. I believe there are many more children and adults who would genuinely grow in their love and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Sharlott Williams      Better Children's Sermons Bucky Dann, 1983-01-01 Children's sermons with demonstrations and outlines      Wild Truth Bible Lessons--Pictures of God Mark Oestreicher, 2010-06-01 Here are 12 active Bible lessons for junior high Sunday school classes or youth group meetings, each one based on one of the 50 pictures of God presented in Wild Truth Journal. Pictures of God energetically, relevantly, and scripturally. The lessons are loaded with off the wall and easy to do discussion starters, video ideas, scripts, and games with a point. And of course, there are plenty of Bible passages and studies to springboard junior highers from the abstract into the concrete. As open Bibles in hand, they explore the nature of God in a lively, relevant way, then begin practicing the traits of God in their own lives. 12 lessons.

Nature, God and Pulpit Elizabeth Achtemeier, 1992-11-06 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable A book whose time has come Nature God and Pulpit draws together and interprets for the church and especially for preachers the biblical materials on the relationship between God and his creation. The book is particularly timely because as Elizabeth Achtemeier points out few subjects have been more neglected and less explicated by this country's pulpits than the relation between nature and God. Clearly articulating what the Bible says about the material world and God's relation to it, this book is all of the following: A thoughtful biblical response to recent discussions of ecology; A discerning corrective to many current theologies and ideologies; An appreciative summary of the findings and notions of modern science; A mother lode of materials and sample sermons on the relation of God to his creation; A passionate call for preachers to more thoroughly examine and articulate scriptural content; An eloquent and inspiring celebration of God in relation to his world. While written primarily for preachers, Nature, God, and Pulpit will provide provocative reading for many others as well: seminarians, homiletics students, teachers, and anybody who wishes to better understand the Christian view of the bond between Creator and creation.

Modeling the Heavenly Father to Earthly Children Kevin Anthony Keating, 2021-01-18

Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth," Lk 10:21 (NIV). Jesus called God his Father, and he taught his followers to think of God as their Father too, saying, "This, then, is how you should pray: Our Father in heaven," Mt 6:9 (NIV). The Scripture describes our Father, God, as loving and compassionate, just yet gracious, merciful, and forgiving. But what if hearing the words "Father in heaven" evokes in our children's minds negative images from adverse experiences they have had with their own fathers on earth? As explained in MODELING THE HEAVENLY FATHER TO EARTHLY CHILDREN, we Christian dads, as well as grandfathers and other influential male adults, have the responsibility and privilege to raise our boys and girls, sons and daughters of all ages, in such a way as to give them an accurate and positive understanding of who God really is. We do this by emulating and modeling divine attributes like justice and abhorrence of evil, but also kindness, wisdom, communication, compassion, and most certainly love. This will take dedication and perseverance; nonetheless, we must rise to this challenge for our kids will be watching us and learning about what heavenly Father really means.
