Athnos,2023-05-26 Is the turning point of human history the Jesus of the cross or the Christ of the resurrection We live on this side of the resurrection yet we act as if we are on the far side of the crucifixion Staring into the cross from the Good Friday perspective makes it difficult to see beyond it It consumes us It blocks our vision Even though we understand in our minds there was a Sunday we continue to stand in our hearts on Friday Are we missing life in the brilliant light of the resurrection Try to imagine the profound transformation from the disciples broken spirit on Friday to their heart stopping joy on Sunday evening Transformation was truly so wrenching there could never be a return to their pre resurrection world They began to see the cross through the lens of the resurrection every time The risen Lord became their launching pad for faith and from that glorious platform they reached back and embraced his crucifixion It should be the same for us Arkansas Methodist ,1920 Astrotheology Dr. Ted F. astroethic All Swirling and Weaving Douglas Basler,2025-09-30 Jesus invitation is simple enough Come follow me Matthew 4 19 But both the conditions of our culture and the conditions of our hearts can make following him difficult We need help re tuning our hearts to the good news of Jesus and the often slow ways of God The habit of reading fiction can serve as one of our greatest allies A good book can open our own stories in new ways Reading slows us down It invites us to pay attention to the details of life And following Jesus only happens in the details We can only walk in faith hope and love within the unique circumstances of our lives Inspired by the wisdom and wonder of writers like Wendell Berry James McBride and Marilynne Robinson All Swirling and Weaving models how the reading life can help us see the ways God is at work in our own stories With humor vulnerability and a pastoral heart Douglas Basler weaves together the fruit of reading twelve contemporary novels with Biblical reflection and experiences from his own life and ministry Fiction has the power to renew our Christian imagination in ways other reading does not John Gary M. Burge,2000 The primary goal of the NIV Application Commentary Series is to help you with the difficult but vital task of bringing an ancient's message into a modern context The Easter Story What Really Happened Chuck Missler,2023-01-24 From the beginning of time thinkers have puzzled over the paradox of fate vs Free will In theological terms this leads to the struggle between Calvinism and Arminianism As we explore this paradox we find that examining the fruit of each position reveals that the River of Life seems to flow between these two extremes and that again truth involves a careful balance We hear a lot about the Sovereignty of God and the prerogatives of our Creator are pretty obvious As the children's riddle goes Where does the gorilla sleep in the forest Anywhere he wants to And as most of you have discovered He has also given us one of His greatest treasures His Word Jealous as He is of His Name Psalm 138 2 highlights for thou hast magnified thy word above thy name And indeed God has declared in detail the responsibilities He desires of His people The Bible lays out just how He desires to be worshipped etc Beyond the mysteries associated with the sovereignty of God and the libraries are full of studies on that subject there emerges what is to many of us an even more troubling mystery The Sovereignty of Man Internationally recognized Biblical authority Chuck Missler explores the fundamental paradox underlying our ultimate destiny Connections: Year B, Volume 2 Joel B. Sharp,2020-11-24 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary This nine volume series offers creative commentary on each reading through the lens of its connections to the rest of Scripture and then seeing the reading through the lenses of culture film fiction ethics and other aspects of contemporary life Commentaries on the Psalms make connections to other readings and to the congregation's experience of worship Connections is published in partnership with Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary Epistle to the Ephesians Rudolf Schnackenburg,2001-09-30 A classic ecumenical commentary on Ephesians In addition to detailed exegesis Schnackenburg pays special attention to the history of interpretation of Ephesians taking account of comparative material in the history of religion and at the end of each exegetical section shows how findings are relevant for today The theological focus is the concept of the church giving rise to ecumenical discussion about ministry and office in the church This commentary has proved invaluable for biblical scholars clergy and theological students
