Magic In The Margins A Medieval Tale Of Bookmaking:

Magic in the Margins W. Nikola-Lisa, 2007 A young apprentice learns to tap his own wellspring of creativity with the help of the magical margins of an illuminated manuscript in this story about patience talent and imagination Full color The Ink Garden of Brother Theophane C.M. Millen, 2010-07-01 Winner of the 2011 Lee Bennett Hopkins Poetry Award In a monastery in the mountains of Mourne during the Middle Ages one young monk struggled to focus on his task copying the Bible and other scholarly books with plain brown ink made from wood bark in plain brown books in his plain brown robe at his plain brown desk Brother Theophane was soon transferred from the scribe's room and assigned to make the ink that the brothers used With his natural curiosity Theophane discovered that inks could be made from other plants besides the wood bark Berries and leaves produced other beautiful colors And soon the books the monks made were illuminated with colors and drawings C M Millen's charming story of a young monk who defied the discipline of the monastery and found his own way to express the beauty of the world will inspire young readers to explore their own world and find their own voices Andrea Wisniewski's illustrations inspired by the illuminated letters that the medieval monks created in books like the Book of Kells bring to life the colors and beauty that surrounded Brother Theophane amidst the plain world of the monastery
