

Kite building activity

Estimated Length	• Approximately 2 Class periods for research and planning • Approximately 2 class periods for construction of kite • Class period for flying kites • 2 Class periods for any necessary adjustments and reflying kites
Prerequisite knowledge/skills	The students will have background knowledge in different types of renewable energy. The students should have knowledge of wind basics; such as the fact that wind is created by differences in earth temperature and also the effects of wind on objects, in particular lift and drag. This background knowledge will be used to help build an efficient windmill blade design.
Description of New Content	The students will learn how a kite flies; this lesson is a precursor for the windmill activity. By learning how a kite flies, the students will learn about the power of the wind; particularly how drag, lift and gravity enable objects such as kites and airplanes can fly. This knowledge will be used to help design a kite that flies.
Rationale	This kite activity is a fun way for students to learn about the basic concepts of wind power; lift, drag and gravity. This activity will help the students build efficient windmill blades for the windmill activity.
Goals	• The students will understand the concepts of lift, drag, and gravity in order to understand how a kite flies. • The students will build a kite.
Materials Needed	• 3' square of heavy plastic bag • 5 feet of basil wood • Glue, glue gun, tape • string

Bennett, 2023-03-28 This textbook is a comprehensive resource for teaching multicultural children s literature Providing foundational information on how and why to integrate diverse children's literature into the classroom this book presents a necessary historical perspective on cultural groups in the United States and context for how to teach children's literature in a way that reflects and sustains students' rich cultural backgrounds. The historical insights and context on diverse cultural groups at the heart of the book allow readers to deepen their understanding of why teaching about cultural diversity is necessary for effective and inclusive education. Part I offers foundational information on how to teach children's literature in a diverse society and Part II overviews pedagogy resources and guidance for teaching specific culturally and linguistically marginalized groups. Each chapter contains book recommendations, discussion questions, and additional resources for teachers. With authentic strategies and crucial background knowledge embedded in each chapter, this text is essential reading for pre-service and in-service teachers and is ideal for courses in children's literature, literacy methods, instruction, and multicultural education. I Am a Muslim: A

Modern Storybook Susan Douglass, 1995-01-01 This unit is built around a set of paired stories: one from the Qur'an or authentic traditions and one related modern story. The overall objectives are 1 to awaken the children's awareness of their identity and worth as Muslims, 2 to model Islamic behavior patterns, and 3 to cultivate a sense of identification and community with Muslims of long ago and in other parts of the modern world. While the unit is designed for kindergarten, its stories and activities may be useful for values instruction throughout the primary grades in a variety of instructional settings, including full-time, weekend, and home schools. This unit emphasizing values education may also be useful in Muslim parenting classes. Each lesson consists of the story pair to be presented to the children orally or dramatically and suggested discussion guidelines and activities through which the values and related behaviors are developed and reinforced in the children's understanding. The 15 lessons are intended to implement teaching objectives in various units taught in a typical Islamic kindergarten social studies curriculum on a selective or exhaustive basis throughout the year. Popular
