The book concludes with a discussion of Joseph Campbell's interpretation of the metaphorical power of myth and its transcendent function to argue for a theory of us rather than a theory of us versus them. Scholars of film, gender studies, American studies, cultural studies, gender studies, and psychology will find this book of particular interest. Tony Scott

Larry Taylor, 2019-01-17 Tony Scott got his start as a film director when he joined his brother at the lucrative commercial directing company Ridley Scott Associates. After directing Top Gun, his second film which changed not only the trajectory of his own life but of the entire action movie industry, Scott's career would be a roller coaster of blockbuster hits, personal films, and confounding failures. With extensive research and original interviews with actors, cinematographers, and writers, this book documents Tony Scott's larger-than-life persona from his early days to his untimely death, which left a hole in genre filmmaking yet to be filled. Contemporary North American Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2002

Encompassing the careers of up to 600 directors over 60 new to this edition working in the US and Canada today, this volume is an invaluable reference for students, researchers, and enthusiasts of film and popular culture. Each entry provides biographical information as well as insightful textual and thematic analysis of the director's work. In comprehensively covering a wide range of film makers from more established mainstream luminaries such as Steven Spielberg, Martin Scorsese, Ridley Scott, and Kathryn Bigelow through independent mavericks like Hal Hartley, Atom Egoyan, Jim Jarmusch, and the Coen brothers to innovative emerging talents including Marc Forster, Monster's Ball, Todd Field, In the Bedroom, and David Gordon Green, George Washington, the shifting landscape of contemporary film making is brought into sharp focus.
