War Imagery in Women's Textiles Deborah A. Deacon, Paula E. Calvin, 2014-06-04 Through the centuries women have used textiles to express their ideas and political opinions creating items of utility that also function as works of art Beginning with medieval European embroideries and tapestries such as the Bayeux Tapestry this book examines the ways in which women around the world have recorded the impact of war on their lives using traditional fabric art forms of knitting sewing quilting embroidery weaving basketry and rug making Works from the United States Canada Latin America Asia the Middle and Near East and Oceania are analyzed in terms of content and utility and cultural and economic implications for the women who created them are discussed

Traditional women's work served to document the upheaval in their lives and supplemented their family income By creating textiles that responded to the chaos of war women developed new textile traditions modified old traditions and created a vehicle to express their feelings

Norwich and the Civil War Patricia F. Staley, 2015-08-24 When Lincoln issued a call for troops in 1861 Norwich sprang into action In a meeting lasting two days the town elected to offer cash awards for volunteers as well as financial support for their families The city's women immediately began sewing uniforms for the volunteer soldiers while mill owners and other wealthy locals donated funds to the war effort Norwich's Dan Tyler was named head of the Connecticut regiment and led his troops into battle at Bull Run The town's senator Lafayette Foster became acting vice president of the United States after Lincoln's assassination Author Tricia Staley uncovers stories of valor and sacrifice on the homefront and the battlefield
