Asia's Clean Revolution David Angel,Michal Rock,2017-09-20 The world s environmental future will be determined in significant part by what happens in the rapidly industrialising and urban economies of Asia The sheer scale of urban population and industrial growth in Asia from Indonesia to China and the energy and materials intensive character of the development process constitutes a dark shadow over the region s and indeed the world s environment And yet this challenge is also an opportunity Precisely because so much of the urban industrial investment within developing Asia has yet to take place the opportunity exists to shape a different development future one that is far less energy materials and waste intensive Asia s Clean Revolution examines the prospects for and pathways to such a new trajectory The book lays out a path breaking vision of how developing economies might go beyond environmental regulation and put in place an array of policies and institutions that could integrate environmental industrial and technological goals These findings provide important input for negotiators considering climate change on a global scale The book approaches the challenge of growth and environment in Asia in a novel way by identifying six major transformational dynamics under way in the world today and assessing whether these can be harnessed to the goal of improved environmental performance of industry With a set of specially commissioned chapters from the leading authorities in North America and Asia this ground breaking book is the first to present concrete policy solutions to the looming crisis driven by large scale urban industrial growth in developing Asia Network-Based Information Systems Tomoya Enokido, Leonhard Barolli, Makoto Takizawa, 2007-08-24 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the First International Conference on Network Based Information Systems NBIS 2007 held in Regensburg Germany September 2007 in conjunction with Dexa 2007 It covers recommender systems business process design aspects mobile commerce security and e payment Web services computing semantic Web e negotiation and agent mediated systems and issues in Web advertising Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States.
