have fled from Kwangtung China in 1905 leaving wife and children behind and now run a greengrocer's shop in Wellington. Their stories intermingle since Katherine usually buys her fruit and vegetables in their shop. Gradually she befriends the younger of the two brothers Yung and after her husband's death their friendships eventually deepens into a secret love affair secret because the interracial relationship would be regarded as a scandal in both communities. Disastrously Katherine's son Robbie has taken on his father's and Lionel Terry's racist views so that knowing of his mother's and Yung's affair he finally kills the Chinese in his shop and later on commits suicide in the garden of their house. Even though Wong herself is of Chinese descent she points out that the story is not her family's story nor a real representation of history but a mere work of fiction. All in all Wong has produced a thought provoking work about choices we make the courage to stay true to oneself and last but not least racism xenophobia and its absurdity and consequences.
