A Librarian's Guide to Engaging Families in Learning M. Elena Lopez, Bharat Mehra, Margaret Caspe, 2021-09-01
Public libraries can increase their impact on knowledge development innovation and social change by promoting parent and family engagement in children's learning. Libraries are increasingly focusing on families. Educational research confirms that family engagement in children's learning and development predicts school readiness, positive social behaviors, high school graduation, interest in STEM careers, and post-secondary education. A Librarian's Guide to Engaging Families in Learning will inspire libraries and librarians to innovate and promote family learning from a child's earliest years through adolescence. By bringing together research and practice, it will deepen librarians' understanding of families' role in education and help them to learn new ways to build positive and trusting family partnerships that honor diverse cultures and languages, as well as to develop leadership for community impact. Written by thought leaders in the fields of family engagement and library science, each of the three main sections of the book begins with a framework followed by case studies illustrating key concepts of the framework. Cases are followed by reflections from practicing librarians. All chapters focus on practical family engagement in the social infrastructure, lifelong learning, and diversity and social justice. Made Free and Thrown Open to the Public Bernadette A. Lear, 2021-09-21 Made Free and Thrown Open to the Public charts the history of public libraries and librarianship in Pennsylvania. Based on archival research at more than fifty libraries and historical societies, it describes a long progression from private subscription-based associations to publicly funded institutions, highlighting the dramatic period during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when libraries were thrown open to women, children, and the poor. Made Free explains how Pennsylvania's physical and cultural geography, legal codes, and other unique features influenced the spread and development of libraries across the state. It also highlights Pennsylvania libraries' many contributions to the social fabric, especially during World War I, the Great Depression, and World War II. Most importantly of all, Made Free convincingly argues that Pennsylvania libraries have made their greatest strides when community activists and librarians supported with state and local resources have worked collaboratively. Routledge Library Editions: Security and Society Various, 2021-09-30 This 12-volume set contains titles originally published between 1934 and 1995. An eclectic mix of titles, this collection draws from anthropology, economics, ethics, politics, psychology, and sociology. Exploring security in both war and peacetime, it includes volumes looking at the causes of war and its effect on society as a whole, the soldiers themselves, and their place in society; the portrayal of war in the press, both in words and photographs; and the politics behind them. Walking the South West Coast Path Paddy Dillon, 2024-08-14 A guidebook to walking the South West Coast Path, a long-distance National Trail from Minehead to Poole along the north Devon, Cornish, south Devon, and Dorset coastline. Covering 1015km (630 miles), this epic route takes in Exmoor National Park and the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site and takes around 4 weeks to walk. The route is described in 45 stages, between 13 and 38km (8-24 miles) in length. Also described is
