Defining Boundaries in al-Andalus Janina M. Safran, 2013-04-09 Al Andalus the Arabic name for the medieval Islamic state in Iberia endured for over 750 years following the Arab and Berber conquest of Hispania in 711 While the popular perception of al Andalus is that of a land of religious tolerance and cultural cooperation the fact is that we know relatively little about how Muslims governed Christians and Jews in al Andalus and about social relations among Muslims Christians and Jews In Defining Boundaries in al Andalus Janina M Safran takes a close look at the structure and practice of Muslim political and legal religious authority and offers a rare look at intercommunal life in Iberia during the first three centuries of Islamic rule Safran makes creative use of a body of evidence that until now has gone largely untapped by historians the writings and opinions of Andalusi and Maghribi jurists during the Umayyad dynasty These sources enable her to bring to life a society undergoing dramatic transformation Obvious differences between conquerors and conquered and Muslims and non Muslims became blurred over time by transculturation intermarriage and conversion Safran examines ample evidence of intimate contact between individuals of different religious communities and of legal juridical accommodation to develop an argument about how legal religious authorities interpreted the social contract between the Muslim regime and the Christian and Jewish populations Providing a variety of examples of boundary testing and negotiation and bringing judges jurists and their legal opinions and texts into the narrative of Andalusi history Safran deepens our understanding of the politics of Umayyad rule makes Islamic law tangibly social and renders intercommunal relations vividly personal

Libraries - Traditions and Innovations Melanie A. Kimball, Katherine M. Wisser, 2017-05-08 Many consider libraries to be immutable institutions deeply entrenched in the past full of dusty tomes and musty staff In truth libraries are and historically have been sites of innovation and disruption Originally presented at the Library History Seminar XII Libraries Traditions and Innovations this collection of essays offers examples of the enduring and evolving aspects of libraries and librarianship Whether belonging to a Caliph in 10th century Spain built for 19th century mechanics or intended for the segregated Southern United States libraries serve as both a reflection and a contestation of their context These essays illustrate that libraries are places of turmoil where real social and cultural controversies are explored and resolved where invention takes place and where identities are challenged and defined reinforcing tradition and commanding innovation

Urban Public Space in Colonial Transformations Monika Baumanova, 2022-09-21 This book offers an interdisciplinary perspective on the precolonial to colonial transition in an urban context by focusing on the changing distribution character and role of public spaces and buildings The volume focuses on three case study regions East African coast North West Africa and the Iberian Peninsula The regions are selected to provide a novel perspective on the socio spatial impact of colonialism on the public life of urban settlements driven by different political forces in different geographical contexts and time periods The three study areas are also linked by sharing several features of urban lifestyle such as the role of trade and the influence of religion Islam in particular The intertwined influence of socio spatial urban characteristics on public life is presented on a range of case studies selected from Africa and southern Europe The approaches are rooted in archaeological thinking on the built environment as material culture and incorporate critical interpretation of ethnographies and historical accounts on both the precolonial and colonial eras This volume is of interest to archaeologists and researchers working in urban history anthropology and heritage

Emotion in Christian and Islamic Contemplative Texts, 1100-1250 A. S. Lazikani, 2021-06-07 This book offers a comparative study of emotion in Arabic Islamic and English Christian contemplative texts c 1110 1250 contributing to the emerging interest in globalization in medieval studies A S Lazikani argues for the necessity of placing medieval English devotional texts in a more global context and seeks to modify influential narratives on the history of emotions to enable this more wide ranging critical outlook Across eight chapters the book examines the dialogic encounters generated by comparative readings of Muhyiddin Ibn Arabi 1165 1240 Umar Ibn al F rid 1181 1235 Abu al Hasan al Shushtar d 1269 Ancrene Wisse c 1225 and the Wooing Group c 1225 Investigating the two fold paradigms of love in the figure of Jesus and in the image of the heart the dis embodied language of affect and the affective semiotics of absence and secrecy Lazikani demonstrates an interconnection between the religious traditions of early Christianity and Islam

The Iberian Qur'an Mercedes García-Arenal, Gerard Wiegers, 2022-09-20 Due to the long presence of Muslims in Islamic territories Al Andalus and Granada and of Muslims minorities in the Christians parts the Iberian Peninsula provides a fertile soil for the study of the Qur an and Qur an translations made by both Muslims and Christians From the mid twelfth century to at least the end of the seventeenth the efforts undertaken by Christian scholars and churchmen by converts by Muslims both Mudejars and Moriscos to transmit interpret and translate the Holy Book are of the utmost importance for the understanding of Islam in Europe This book reflects on a context where Arabic books and Arabic speakers who were familiar with the Qur an and its exegesis coexisted with Christian scholars The latter not only intended to convert Muslims and polemize with them but also to acquire solid knowledge about them and about Islam Qur ans were seized during battle bought copied translated transmitted recited and studied The different features and uses of the Qur an on Iberian soil its circulation as well as the lives and works of those who wrote about it and the responses of their audiences are the object of this book

Interfaith Relationships and Perceptions of the Other in the Medieval Mediterranean Sarah Davis-Secord, Belen Vicens, Robin Vose, 2021-12-16 This book is a collaborative contribution that expands our understanding of how interfaith relations both real and imagined developed across medieval Iberia and the Mediterranean The volume pays homage to the late Olivia Remie Constable s scholarship and presents innovative thought provoking interdisciplinary investigations of cross cultural exchange ranging widely across time and geography Divided into two parts Perceptions of the Other and Interfaith relations this volume features scholars engaging with church art literature historiography scientific treatises and polemics in order to study how the religious Other was depicted to serve different purposes and audiences There are also microhistories that examine the experiences of individual families classes and communities as they interacted with one another in their own specific contexts Several of these studies draw their source material from church and state archives as well as jurisprudential texts and span the centuries from the late medieval to early modern periods The Intellectual Properties of Learning John

Willinsky,2018-01-02 Providing a sweeping millennium plus history of the learned book in the West John Willinsky puts current debates over intellectual property into context asking what it is about learning that helped to create the concept even as it gave the products of knowledge a different legal and economic standing than other sorts of property Willinsky begins with Saint Jerome in the fifth century then traces the evolution of reading writing and editing practices in monasteries schools universities and among independent scholars through the medieval period and into the Renaissance He delves into the influx of Islamic learning and the rediscovery of classical texts the dissolution of the monasteries and the founding of the Bodleian Library before finally arriving at John Locke whose influential lobbying helped bring about the first copyright law the Statute of Anne of 1710 Willinsky s bravura tour through this history shows that learning gave rise to our idea of intellectual property while remaining distinct from if not wholly uncompromised by the commercial economy that this concept inspired making it clear that today s push for marketable intellectual property threatens the very nature of the quest for learning on which it rests Islam and Global Dialogue Dr Roger Boase,2013-05-28 At a time when the world is becoming increasingly interdependent multi cultural and multi religious the concept of religious pluralism is under assault as a result of hatred prejudice and misunderstanding from both religious exclusivists and dogmatic secularists In this important and timely book twenty internationally acclaimed scholars and leading religious thinkers respond to contemporary challenges in different ways Some discuss the idea of a dialogue of civilisations others explore the interfaith principles and ethical resources of their own spiritual traditions All of them reject the notion that any single religion can claim a monopoly of wisdom all are committed to the ideal of a just and peaceful society in which people of different religions and cultures can happily coexist More space is here given to Islam than to Judaism and Christianity because as a result of negative stereotypes it is the most misunderstood of the major world religions HRH Prince Hassan bin Talal of Jordan contributes the Foreword

A History of the World in 12 Maps Jerry Brotton,2013-11-14 A New York Times Bestseller Maps allow the armchair traveler to roam the world the diplomat to argue his points the ruler to administer his country the warrior to plan his campaigns and the propagandist to boost his cause rich and beautiful Wall Street Journal Throughout history maps have been fundamental in shaping our view of the world and our place in it But far from being purely scientific objects maps of the world are unavoidably ideological and subjective intimately bound up with the systems of power and authority of particular times and places Mapmakers do not simply represent the world they construct it out of the ideas of their age In this scintillating book Jerry Brotton examines the significance of 12 maps from the almost mystical representations of ancient history to the satellite derived imagery of today He vividly recreates the environments and circumstances in which each of the maps was made showing how each conveys a highly individual view of the world Brotton shows how each of his maps both influenced and reflected contemporary events and how by considering it in all its nuances and omissions we can better understand the world that produced it Although the way we map our surroundings is more precise than ever before Brotton argues that maps today are no more definitive or objective than they have ever been Readers of this beautifully illustrated and masterfully argued book will never look at a map in quite the same way again A fascinating and panoramic new history of the cartographer s art The Guardian The intellectual background to these images is conveyed with beguiling erudition There is nothing more subversive than a map The Spectator A mesmerizing and beautifully illustrated book The Telegraph

Jewish Literatures in Spanish and Portuguese Ruth Fine, Susanne Zepp, 2022-10-24 This volume offers a thorough introduction to Jewish world literatures in Spanish and Portuguese which not only addresses the coexistence of cultures but also the functions of a literary and linguistic space of negotiation in this context From the Middle Ages to present day the compendium explores the main Jewish chapters within Spanish and Portuguese language world literature whether from Europe Latin America or other parts of the world No comprehensive survey of this area has been undertaken so far Yet only a broad focus of this kind can show how diasporic Jewish literatures have been and are while closely tied to their own traditions deeply intertwined with local and global literary developments and how the aesthetic praxis they introduced played a decisive formative role in the history of literature With this epistemic claim the volume aims at steering clear of isolationist approaches to Jewish literatures

Globalization of Knowledge in the Post-Antique Mediterranean, 700-1500 Sonja Brentjes, Jürgen Renn, 2016-05-05 The contributions to this volume enter into a dialogue about the routes modes and institutions that transferred and transformed knowledge across the late antique Mediterranean and the Persian Gulf Each contribution not only presents a different case study but also investigates a different type of question ranging from how history writing drew on cross culturally constructed stories and shared sets of skills and values to how an ancient warlord was transformed into the iconic hero of a newly created monotheistic religion Between these two poles the emergence of a new knowledge related but market based profession in Baghdad is discussed alongside the long distance transfer of texts doctrines and values within a religious minority community from the shores of the Caspian Sea to the mountains of the southern Arabian Peninsula The authors also investigate the outsourcing of military units and skills across religious and political boundaries the construction of cross cultural knowledge of the balance through networks of scholars patrons merchants and craftsmen as well as differences in linguistic and pharmaceutical practices in mixed cultural environments for shared corpora of texts drugs and plants
