The successful strategies presented here range from the Vancouver Public Library's innovative use of Twitter to the United Nations Library's adoption of a social media policy to the Farmington Connecticut Public Library's fantastic work using social media to reach teens who weren't using the library. Other libraries highlight their ventures into media including blogs, Pinterest, and social catalogs.

Space and Organizational Considerations in Academic Library Partnerships and Collaborations Doherty, Brian, 2016-04-25. A vital component of any academic institution, libraries are held to and expected to maintain certain standards. In order to meet these standards and better accommodate the student and faculty body they serve, many libraries are recognizing the benefit of forging relationships with other professional and academic entities. Space and Organizational Considerations in Academic Library Partnerships and Collaborations is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on and methods for utilizing existing spaces within libraries to facilitate collection development, in addition to discussions on how on-campus and off-campus partnerships can assist in this endeavor. Focusing on issues related to faculty and researcher collaborations, collection management, and professional development, this book is ideally designed for administrators, librarians, academicians, MLIS students, and information professionals.

Teaching Technology in Libraries Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2017-01-12. Libraries are charged with fostering new skills and capabilities, a challenging task in an era of rapid technological change. Developing new ways of teaching and learning within budget and time constraints is the key to keeping up to date. Written by librarians, this collection of new essays describes an array of technology outreach and instruction programs from the theoretical to the practical for public, academic, and school libraries based on case studies and discussions of methodology. Content includes out-of-the-box lessons, outreach successes, and technology instruction programs applicable to patrons and staff at public, academic, and school libraries.
