Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1865 A Space in the Heart Larry Carlat, 2024-11-19 Foreword Reviews praises the book as a sensitive guidebook for grieving parents Intimate warm and conversational in tone yet searing in its honesty and says it shows that while there is no getting over the loss of a child it is still possible with time to fill the heart's emptiness with love and light A Space in the Heart is about the anguish that the death of a child brings and how to survive and thrive in its aftermath It's part memoir part self help zero bullshit and 100 percent straight from the heart It's about our never ending love for our lost children and how that love ultimately helps us transform and heal In other words it's a roadmap for a road no one would ever choose to travel Grief isn't something that you overcome but you can learn to live with it It will take time It will take work It will take pain It will take strength It will take an open heart It will take everything you have It will take things that you didn't know you had That's what this book is really about and what sets it apart It's about the specific heartache that the death of a child brings It includes an honest retelling of the ups and downs of parenting an adopted son who struggled with addiction and mental illness It's a heartbreaking at times surprisingly humorous yet ultimately comforting guided tour through the hell of losing a child a journey on which a parent can transform from ordinary to extraordinary One of the many other things Larry Carlat learned is that grief lasts until the day we die The question becomes what do we want to do with it until then How do we want to live our lives knowing that we've lost a vital piece of who we are His greatest wish is that this book will help answer those existential questions and above all provide unwavering hope along the way The Dramatic Works of William Shakespeare, Adapted for Family Reading William Shakespeare, Thomas Bowdler, 1861 Hesperia Harry Lyman Koopman, 1919 Fluency in Focus Mary Lee Prescott-Griffin, Nancy L.
