

Political Science 1001 – American National Government

Study Guide for Exam 1C

What makes a social movement "political"? Approximately what percentage of Americans participate in some political action/organization every five years of their lifetime?

Approximately 60% every five years, though this number probably will fluctuate over time under Trump

What's up with Trump? From a community-organizational perspective, particularly the political science book "collective"? What is meant by this?

Individuals have problems and often act separately, sometimes with the goal of solving "collective" problems

What is an anti-social network, anti-organizational? How do they function and why is it really common public opinion?

Creating others: Different perspectives, some question different results. Examples from anti-social network that are not mentioned in lecture: populism, racist, xenophobic

What's the anti-social network? Information is the public for being "social" network, not social

What's the anti-social network? How often do we measure it? What is it? How?
