Global Games Maarten van Bottenburg, 2001 A detailed and coherent account of the social significance and the politics underlying sports Global Games demonstrates that sports are not a trivial pursuit but are deeply embedded in the way individuals and nations wish to be perceived Book jacket Gids voor moderne architectuur in Nederland Paul Groenendijk, Piet Vollaard, Piet Rook, 1998 Reis gids voor moderne Nederlandse architectuur waarin ruim 700 objecten worden afgebeeld en beknopt beschreven The Control of Fuddle and Flash J. W. Gerritsen, 2000 A historical and comparative overview describing the regulations of the use of alcohol and drugs opiates in the USA the UK and the Netherlands It explains the conditions causes and consequences of the various regulatory regimes and provides insights into their political economy An Economic and Social History of the Netherlands, 1800-1920 Michael Wintle, 2000-09-21 An Economic and Social History of the Netherlands 1800 1920 provides a comprehensive account of Dutch history from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century examining population and health the economy and socio political history The Dutch experience in this period is fascinating and instructive the country saw extremely rapid population growth awesome death rates staggering fertility some of the fastest economic growth in the world a uniquely large and efficient service sector a vast and profitable overseas empire characteristic pillarization and relative tolerance Michael Wintle also examines the lives of ordinary people what they ate how much they earned what they thought about public affairs and how they wooed and wed This book will be of central importance to Dutch specialists as well as European historians more generally Women's Emancipation Movements in the Nineteenth Century Sylvia Paletschek, 2005-11-14 The nineteenth century a time of far reaching cultural political and socio economic transformation in Europe brought about fundamental changes in the role of women Women achieved this by fighting for their rights in the legal economic and political spheres In the various parts of Europe this process went forward at a different pace and followed different patterns Most historical research up to now has ignored this diversity preferring to focus on women s emancipation movements in major western European countries such as Britain and France The present volume provides a broader context to the movement by including countries both large and small from all regions of Europe Fourteen historians all of them specialists in women s history examine the origins and development of women s emancipation movements in their respective areas of expertise By exploring the cultural and political diversity of nineteenth century Europe and at the same time pointing out connections to questions explored by conventional scholarship the essays shed new light on common developments and problems Journal of Rehabilitation Research and Development , 1988 Journal of Rehabilitation Research & Development , 1988 Monthly Bibliography United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1989 Traveling Heritages Saskia Wieringa, 2008 In the context of our increasingly globalized and digitalized world libraries and archives are experiencing major changes The methods used internationally to collect cultural heritage and other historical material are shifting as new media have added important innovative tools for gathering preserving and sharing information around the globe In light of our increasingly multicultural societies and the expanding digital divide we need new and more inclusive approaches to the collection of cultural heritage This means that critical reflection on both the contents of collections and methods of acquisition is crucial The International Information Center and Archives for the Women's Movement IIAV in Amsterdam provides a case study in how to approach these issues It considered such questions as how to make optimal use of new media and whose histories should be represented in its archives In Traveling Heritages international and national heritage experts from academic library and archival professions reflect upon these questions offering new perspectives on documenting women's histories

Transnational Feminism in Non-English Speaking Europe, c.1960-1990 Agnes Andeweg, Heidi Kurvinen, 2024-12-27 This edited collection aims to look beyond established narratives of feminist history by focusing on non English speaking European countries Recent scholarship on the history of the women's liberation movement in individual countries has enhanced our understanding of the importance of transnational influences in the history of European feminism and problematised the periodisation of feminisms Additionally the translation of feminist practices and texts have received interest during the past years Despite this work the United States and to a lesser extent the United Kingdom are still the main points of reference in histories of post war feminism This book asks what happens to the picture if we place non English speaking European countries in the centre Using Lucy Delap's concept of mosaic feminism its contributors emphasise the variety of patterns that women's feminist organising showed in different cultural contexts despite similarities in their ideological corner stones The Netherlands and the Dutch Eduardo F. History of the Low Countries J. C. H. Blom, E. Lamberts, 2006-06-01 The history of the smaller European countries is rather neglected in the teaching of European history at university level We are therefore pleased to announce the publication of the first comprehensive history of the Low Countries in English from Roman Times to the present Remaining politically and culturally fragmented with its inhabitants speaking Dutch French Frisian and German the Low Countries offer a fascinating picture of European history en miniature For historical reasons parts of northern France and western Germany also have to be included in the Low Countries a term that must remain both broad and fluid a convenient label for a region which has seldom if ever composed a unified whole In earlier ages it is even more difficult to set parameters again reflecting Europe as a whole when tribes and kingdoms stretched across expanses not limited to the present states of Belgium Luxembourg and the Netherlands Nevertheless its parts did demonstrate many common traits and similar developments that differentiated them from surrounding countries and lent them a distinct character Internationally the region often served both as a mediator for and a buffer to the surrounding great powers France Britain and Germany an important role still played today as Belgium and the Netherlands have increasingly become involved in the broader process of European integration in which they often share the same interest and follow parallel policies This highly illustrated volume serves as an ideal introduction to the rich history of the Low Countries for students and the generally interested reader alike Two Centuries of Experience in Water

Resources Management John Lonnquest, Bert Toussaint, Joe Manous, 2015-03-20 Protecting Women Ulla Wikander, Alice Kessler-Harris, Jane E. Lewis, 1995 Enacted in almost every industrial country a century ago protective legislation directed toward women provoked bitter controversy pitting men against women women against women and elected officials against political parties Strong conflicts arose over what constituted protection Does this kind of legislation help preserve women's capacities to mother or is it intended to preserve men's jobs Does protective legislation help achieve workplace equality Does it give the state the right to intrude into private family life and if so how far In this international collection thirteen historians explore the origin and array of protective labor legislation directed at women The authors analyze ideologies attitudes and effects of legislation across women's classes among employers and workers organizations and in both bourgeois and socialist feminist groups Their essays raise profoundly disturbing questions and provide startling insights as to why the debates that originated more than a hundred years ago are still unresolved The contributors are from Australia Austria Denmark Germany
