Good Music Festival Straplines:

Stamp Collecting ,1958      Branding Your Business James Hammond,2011-03-03 The only way forward for business success is to create a memorable brand and fix it in the consumer s mind Branding Your Business explains the whole branding process in easy to follow terms Providing practical help instead of academic theories it explains what a brand is and what it is not how to conduct a DIY brand audit and how to use marketing NLP and psychology principles to create a powerful brand for your business Based around the theory that a brand is the total perception a customer has about a company its products or services Branding Your Business will reveal what is needed to create and manage successful brands increase profits and leave the competition standing      Geography of Tourism Peter Mason,2017-11-30 Provides both an awareness of the spatial nature of tourism by means of a geographical perspective and offers critical analysis of major contemporary geographical themes and issues that relate to tourism      Films and Filming ,1977      Managing Organisational Success in the Arts David Stevenson,2018-10-10 The creative and cultural industries are a dynamic and rapidly expanding field of enterprise Yet all too often the dominant narrative about arts organisations is one of crisis collapse and closure This edited collection seeks to challenge that narrative through pursuing a focus on organisational success in the management of creative and cultural organisations This book offers a robust and in depth analysis of nine international case studies exploring how different organisations have achieved their objectives through effectively managing their resources Spanning a broad cross section of the cultural sector including Theatres Multi Arts Venues Performing Arts Companies Museums and Galleries and Festivals and Events these cases highlight the importance of examining an individual organisation s success in relation to its environmental context revealing not only how arts organisations work in practice but also providing inspiration and encouragement for those wishing to emulate such success With an explicit focus on examining theory in practice this unique collection will be of great interest to students academics and practitioners alike While traditional approaches have often been overly theoretical this pragmatic approach will help students to gain a richer understanding of how to manage cultural and creative organisations more effectively      Hack Graham Johnson,2012-05-10 Graham Johnson was a fresh faced journalist with an ambition to break the big news stories and make his name as a star reporter when an offer came in to work at a leading tabloid he couldn t say no Instantly he found himself drawn into a world of sleaze spin and corruption where bending the law was justifiable in the hunt for the big selling story and bending the truth was the norm Against his better judgement Graham found his niche in this new world and what s more he found that he was good at it In his time at first the News of the World then the Sunday Mirror he made a name for himself as a man who could deliver the story no matter what a kind of tabloid terrorist who rifled through celebrity s rubbish bins stalked out politicians hotel rooms and paid up page three girls to seduce Premiership footballers all in the name of scoring a front page story Hack is a compelling and intoxicating story of one man s time in the tabloid jungle a world that in its heady mix of sex drugs and casual immorality is reminiscent of the City and how he ultimately saved himself      Live Literature Ellen Wiles, 2021-05-21 This ground breaking book explores the phenomenal growth of live literature in the digitalizing 21st century Wiles asks why literary events appeal and matter to people and how they can transform the ways in which fiction is received and valued Readers are immersed in the experience of two contrasting events a major literary festival and an intimate LGBTQ salon Evocative scenes and observations are interwoven with sharp critical analysis and entertaining conversations with well known author performers reader audiences producers critics and booksellers Wiles s experiential literary ethnography represents an innovative and vital contribution not just to literary research but to research into the value of cultural experience across art forms This book probes intersections between readers and audiences writers and performers texts and events bodies and memories and curation and reception It addresses key literary debates from cultural appropriation to diversity in publishing the effects of social media and the quest for authenticity It will engage a broad audience from academics and producers to writers and audiences      The Garland Handbook of African Music Ruth M. Stone, 2010-04-02 The Garland Handbook of African Music is comprised of essays from The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Volume 1 Africa 1997 Revised and updated the essays offer detailed regional studies of the different musical cultures of Africa and examine the ways in which music helps to define the identity of this particular area Part One provides an in depth introduction to Africa Part Two focuses on issues and processes such as notation and oral tradition dance in communal life and intellectual property Part Three focuses on the different regions countries and cultures of Africa with selected regional case studies The second edition has been expanded to include exciting new scholarship that has been conducted since the first edition was published Questions for Critical Thinking at the end of each major section guide and focus attention on what musical and cultural issues arise when one studies the music of Africa issues that might not occur in the study of other musics of the world An accompanying audio compact disc offers musical examples of some of the music of Africa      Berber Culture on the World Stage Jane E. Goodman, 2005-11-03 Annotation Explores Berber cultural identity and performance in Algeria France and on the world music scene      Innovative Marketing Communications Guy Masterman, Emma Wood, 2007-06-01 Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management provides students and event managers with a complete insight into the strategic and innovative marketing of events of all scales and nature The book builds a conceptual framework for the development planning implementation and evaluation of innovative communication strategies for the marketing of events and the effective use of events as an innovative communications method in general organizational marketing With a strong practical underpinning Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management emphasises to event managers the importance of effectively integrating a range of tools and techniques to communicate the event and provides them with a better understanding of how a variety of private and public sector organisations can use events within their communication strategies      The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide

Sarah Thomasson,2022-08-20 The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide examines how these cities world famous arts events have shaped and been shaped by their long term interaction with their urban environments While the Edinburgh International Festival and Adelaide Festival are long established prestigious events that champion artistic excellence they are also accompanied by the two largest open access fringe festivals in the world It is this simultaneous staging of multiple events within Edinburgh s Summer Festivals and Adelaide s Mad March that generates the visibility and festive atmosphere popularly associated with both places Drawing on perspectives from theatre studies and cultural geography this book interrogates how the Festival City as a place myth has developed in the very different local contexts of Edinburgh and Adelaide and how it is challenged by groups competing for the right to use and define public space Each chapter examines a recent performative event in which festival debates and controversies spilled out beyond the festival space to activate the public sphere by intersecting with broader concerns and audiences This book forges an interdisciplinary comparative framework for festival studies to interrogate how festivals are embedded in the social and political fabric of cities and to assess the cultural impact of the festivalisation phenomenon

Rules of Engagement Kim Williams,2014-08-27

From FOXTEL to News Corp film to football opera to business Kim Williams is a builder of Australian institutions He has worked with some of the very best in their fields Rupert Murdoch Kerry Packer Kevin Sheedy Gail Kelly and Don Burrows to name just a few Rules of Engagement is a candid up close and very personal account of the exercise of power in the nation s leading boardrooms political parties and media organisations Told with a deft touch and an energetic at times mischievous spirit Rules of Engagement shows how much one person can achieve if they have insatiable curiosity limitless interests and impressive discipline

State And The Arts In Singapore, The: Policies And Institutions Terence Chong,2018-08-13

This book covers Singapore s key arts policies and art institutions which have shaped the cultural landscape of the country from the 1950s to the present The scholars and experts in this volume critically assess arts policies and arts institutions to collectively provide an overview of how arts and culture have been deployed by the state The chapters are arranged chronologically to cover milestone events from the forging of Malayan culture the government s anti yellow culture campaign the use of culture for tourism the setting up of the Advisory Council on Arts and Culture the Renaissance City Report the setting up of the School of the Arts and others Putting to rest the notion that Singapore is a cultural desert this volume is valuable reading for students of cultural policy policy makers who seek an understanding of Singapore s cultural trajectory and for international readers interested in Singapore s arts and cultural policy

Bluecoat, Liverpool

Bryan Biggs, John Belchem, 2020 An integral part of Liverpool s cultural life for three centuries Bluecoat is a unique and much loved institution in the city This book tells its fascinating story as it evolved from charity school to the UK s first contemporary arts centre It sheds light on the port s eighteenth century religious and mercantile environment including transatlantic slavery and educational philanthropy in which it grew and how such echoes continue to resonate in the work of artists with whom Bluecoat works The predominant focus is on an inclusive building for the arts started by the bohemian Sandon Studios Society in 1907 which hosted significant exhibitions that included Picasso Matisse and many leading modern British artists Bluecoat Society of Arts emerged in 1927 as the building s custodians paving the way for an arts centre that overcame financial woes and wartime bombs to play a prominent role in the culture of Liverpool and the UK with artists and communities at its heart Described as where village hall meets the avant garde Bluecoat s rich story encompasses an eclectic cast of characters such as Stravinsky Yoko Ono Simon Rattle Captain Beefheart Sun Ra and the inspirational Fanny Calder as the authors trace Bluecoat s key strands including visual art music performance the building s own creative community and its distinctive Queen Anne architecture harmoniously refreshed in the twenty first century Book jacket
