A Higher Education Equity Walk in The Struggle for American Identity

Lenford Sutton ,2024-02-03 A Higher Education Equity Walk in the Struggle for American Identity offers a compelling case study by Lenford Sutton recounting the author s parallel experience as the first black man to serve as the tempered radical in a historically white learning community In the Southwest Drawing parallels with the tragic fate of Ahmad Aubry in an unwelcoming community Sutton sheds light on the visible and unseen cultural frameworks racial habits and value gaps leaders from non dominant groups navigate when pursuing Diversity Equity and Inclusion goals and objects within the university strategic plans of Historically White Institutions In addition it captures deep reflection from the experience reframing problems in the spirit of Design Thinking with particular emphasis on Empathy as the Gateway to problem solving Recognizing that Digital transformation both cultural and demographic shifts are the drivers of enormous changes that foster fear and increased uncertainty the text emphasizes the new learnings and recommendations for leaders operating in similar circumstances It connotes that tempered radicals often reside at the intersection of innovation and the status quo and in the current cultural and technological disruption of higher education can serve the institution well if deployed appropriately by university leadership to scale its culture From Ivory Tower to Academic Commitment and Leadership Amalya

Oliver-Lumerman,Gili S. Drori,2021-02-26 How is the public mission of universities to change in the face of today s global challenges How is the 21st Century university to balance its long standing traditions and its commitment to teaching research and commercialization with rapidly changing social needs and conditions worldwide And how does the newly defined public role of the university reflect on changes to non profit organizations in general Amalya Oliver Lumerman and Gili S Drori offer a new model of academic commitment and leadership in response to questions about the new public role of the university Global Encyclopedia of Public Administration, Public Policy, and Governance Ali

Doctoral Education for the Knowledge Society Jung Cheol Shin, Barbara M. Kehm, Glen A. Jones, 2018-09-24 This book explores and compares the systems of doctoral education in twelve higher education systems consisting of four systems in East Asia four in Europe and four Anglo American systems The emphasis placed on doctoral education and training has increased dramatically in many higher education systems in response to the global competition for highly skilled human resources to serve the needs of knowledge societies Doctoral education is a key element within the research and development infrastructure and doctoral students support university research and represent the next generation of the professoriate While doctoral education has received considerable attention within national higher education systems there has been surprisingly little international or comparative research on the structure of doctoral education and the nature of contemporary reforms

Responsibility of Higher Education Systems ,2020-06-29 The evolving societal political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge It raises questions about the role of higher education in society its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark Engberg Philipp Friedrich Martina Gaisch Solomon Gebreyohans Gebru Ton Kallenberg Kathi A Ketcheson Lu Liu Alfredo Marra Clare Milsom Kenneth Moore Roberto Moscati Marjolein Muskens Daniela N meyer Attila Pausits Svetlana Shenderova Wafa Singh Chuanyi Wang Denyse Webbstock Gregory Wolniak and Jiale Yang See inside the book

Proceedings of the 25th European Conference on Knowledge Management Dr. Nora Obermayer, Dr Andrea Bencsik, Professorial Pathways Martin J. Finkelstein, Glen A. Jones, 2019-05-21 What makes a professor The answer depends on where in the world you are Winner of the CIHE Award for Significant Research on International Higher Education by the Association for the Study of Higher Education In the twenty first century universities worldwide have found themselves thrust into a great brain race as nations both developed and developing seek to enhance their place in the global knowledge economy As the concept of the de localized university one that has radically expanded perhaps even beyond national borders grows competing nations have begun reshaping aspects of their national systems to accommodate global standards and metrics In Professorial Pathways Martin J Finkelstein and Glen A Jones consider how academic careers vary in countries that are fundamentally different in their organization and dynamics Building on 25 years of scholarship the book confronts major questions What can we learn from the experience of other nations as they seek to balance the seemingly contradictory imperatives of expanding access and ensuring global competitiveness What are the implications of this rapidly changing policy environment for the health of the academic professions on which university teaching and scholarship depends And how can we advance the comparative study of higher education and in particular of the academic profession The volume brings together detailed case studies of the latest and ever changing educational developments in ten countries across Europe France Germany United Kingdom Russia Asia China India Japan North America United States Canada and South America Brazil Essays written by respected scholars in the field identify the major structural features of national higher education systems and academic markets that directly shape academic work and careers Professorial Pathways will be of interest to anyone who toils in the vineyards of comparative and international higher education Contributors Elizabeth Balachevsky Martin J Finkelstein N Jayaram Glen A Jones Barbara M Kehm Dan Mao Christine Musselin Peter Scott Fengqiao Yan Akiyoshi Yonezawa Maria Yudkevich Engineering, Social Sciences, and the Humanities Steen Hyldgaard Christensen, Anders Buch, Eddie Conlon, Christelle Didier, Carl Mitcham, Mike Murphy, 2023-01-16 This book presents a critical examination of conversations between engineering social sciences and the humanities asking whether their conversations have come of age These conversations are important because ultimately their outcome have real world consequences in engineering education and practice and for the social and material world we inhabit Taken together the 21 chapters provide scholarly argued responses to the following questions Why are these conversations important for engineering for social sciences and for the humanities Are there key places in practice in the curriculum and in institutions where these conversations can develop best What are the barriers to successful conversations What proposals can be made for deepening these conversations for the future How would we know that the conversations have come of age and who gets to decide The book appeals to scholarly audiences that come together through their work in engineering education and practice The chapters of the book probes and access the meetings and conversations and they explore new avenues for strengthening dialogues that transcend narrow disciplinary confines and divisions The volume offers a rich collection of descriptive resources and theoretical tools that will be useful for researchers of engineering practices and for those aiming to reshape the engineering lifeworld through new policies The book depicts the current state of the art of the most visible SSH contributions to shaping engineering practices as well as a map of research gaps and policy problems that still need to be explored Dr Ir Lavinia Marin TU Delft Electrical Engineering and Philosophy The Changing Academic Profession in Hong Kong Gerard A. Postiglione, Jisun Jung, 2017-05-05 Hong Kong's universities have been transformed by the move from elite to mass higher education from government support to market driven finance from academic management to professional management from local to cross border and international outreach from China's education bridge to China's education window and from a colonial model of curricular specialization to a postcolonial model emphasizing broader intellectual development and service As the landscape of Hong Kong higher education has undergone change so have the backgrounds specializations expectations and work roles of academic staff The academic profession is ageing increasingly insecure more accountable more international at the same time more Mainland focused and less likely to be organized only along disciplinary lines The academic profession today is expected to be more innovative in teaching more productive in research and more entrepreneurial in fundraising New approaches to governance have evolved and blurred the boundaries between academic and managerial roles within the university The power to appoint members to university councils has become an area of contention It has come increasing differentiation and changing expectations about knowledge creation and application This has expanded the role of the academy and challenged the coherence and viability of the traditional academic role and loyalties to original disciplines Based on the multitude of challenges in Hong Kong higher education this book explores the future direction of Hong Kong academic profession Hong Kong has arguably one of the best higher education systems in the world At the heart of this system and indeed of any system is the academic profession The Changing Academic in Hong Kong provides a convincing and multifaceted analysis of the professoriate This book is essential for understanding Hong Kong's success and it has lessons for a broader understanding of the academic profession Philip G Altbach Research Professor Boston College USA The one book that has presented a complete portrait of recent changes and challenges to Hong Kong's academic profession the book should be recognized as a classic Futao Huang Professor of Higher Education Hiroshima University Japan Gerard Postiglione and Jisun Jung have successfully pulled together a strong team of researchers making significant contributions to the debates of changing academic profession especially as universities in Hong Kong are developing new performance indicators in response to the University Governance Review by Sir Howard Newby This volume is timely and highly relevant to researchers academics and policy makers in higher education with critical reflections on academic profession in Hong Kong Ka ho Mok Vice President Lingnan University Hong Kong b A very thorough analysis of the situation of the academic profession and its environment in Hong Kong A setting which calls for and provides opportunities for internationality of higher education in a unique way but concurrently is tempted to make it itself a victim of the world wide inclination of over emphasizing visible research productivity Thus the case of Hong Kong is presented as both exceptional and as prototypical for the search of the balance across the functions of higher education Ulrich Teichler Professor International Centre for Higher Education Research Kassel University Germany Hong Kong's higher education
