into teacher education and empower them in transforming their classroom practices to correspond with the GELT paradigm. The book highlights how the global spread of English impacts language teacher education, discusses the theoretical foundations underlying the design of teacher education for GELT, addresses the knowledge base for preparing teachers to use GELT, and examines the applications of teacher education for GELT. It is vital reading for graduate students, teacher educators, and researchers in language teacher education and beyond.

Debates in Second Language Education

Ernesto Macaro, Robert Woore, 2021-11-29. Debates in Second Language Education provides an up-to-date account of the key debates and areas of controversy in the field of second language learning and teaching. Adopting a broad and comparative perspective and emphasising the importance of considering a variety of learning contexts, it encourages students and practising teachers to engage with contemporary issues and developments in learning and teaching. Chapters are designed to stimulate thinking and understanding in relation to theory and practice and help language educators to make informed judgements by arguing from a position based on theoretical knowledge and understanding. Bringing together leading contributors in the field, the book discusses a wide range of issues relating to second language learning and teaching, including the relationship between age and success in language learning, aptitude versus motivation as predictors of successful language learning, linguistic diversity and plurilingualism, the teaching of grammar and vocabulary, the value of phonics, learning pronunciation, the second language only versus the multilingual debate. With reflective points in every chapter, Debates in Second Language Education will be a valuable resource for any student or practising teacher, as well as for those engaged in initial teacher education, continuing professional development, or Master's level study. It will also be of interest to second language acquisition researchers and those studying applied linguistics.

Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century, Volume II Kassem M. Wahba, Liz England, Zeinab A. Taha, 2017-07-06. Drawing on the collective expertise of language scholars and educators in a variety of subdisciplines, the Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century, Volume II provides a comprehensive treatment of teaching and research in Arabic as a second and foreign language worldwide. Keeping a balance among theory, research, and practice, the content is organized around 12 themes: Trends and Recent Issues in Teaching and Learning Arabic; Social, Political, and Educational Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Identifying Core Issues in Practice; Language Variation; Communicative Competence and Using Frames in Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Arabic Programs: Goals, Design, and Curriculum; Teaching and Learning Approaches; Content-Based Instruction and Curriculum; Arabic Teaching and Learning Classroom Language Materials and Language Corpora; Assessment, Testing, and Evaluation; Methodology of Teaching Arabic; Skills and Components; Teacher Education and Professional Development; Technology-Mediated Teaching and Learning; Future Directions. The field faces new challenges since the publication of Volume I, including increasing and diverse demands, motives, and needs for learning Arabic across various contexts of use, a need for accountability, and academic research given the growing recognition of the complexity and diverse contexts of teaching Arabic and an increasing shortage of and need for quality of instruction Volume II addresses these challenges It is designed to generate a dialogue continued from Volume I among professionals in the field leading to improved practice and to facilitate interactions not only among individuals but also among educational institutions within a single country and across different countries
