In the Beginning: Hijacking of the Religion of God Sami M.

El-Soudani,2009-06-09 Preface It was shortly after I had graduated from the University of Cambridge in 1980 with a PhD Degree specializing in fracture mechanics and failure analysis of materials and structures that I discovered the dire need for this book This undertaking began to take shape in the early 1980s with the Middle East aflame devastated by what some viewed as a holy war and with millennialists prophesying the end of days by the year 2000 C E After publishing and co authoring 87 scientific and industrial reports and technical papers many of which were in national and international magazines on the subject of failure analysis of metals and fracture mechanics of aircraft structures I came to realize that consequences of failures of the human spirit are far more devastating than failures of metals and aircraft structures But now at the outset of the 21st century the world is still experiencing turmoil and devastation by wars spreading like wildfire with Jews Christians and Moslems at each other s throats in seemingly never ending battles and ugly strife Some call it war on terror others speak of wars of clashing cultures crusades jihad etc etc etc One cant help but wonder how this saga of 99% misery and 1% heroism will ever come to an end Only the gullible would attempt to explain the ongoing world conflict among People of the Book Jews Christians and Moslems based on the course of events during the past few years or even the past few decades This is where this book comes in with a rigorous rationalized and hopefully convincing critical assessment of a never before explored most innate aspect of the human nature and that is its obsession with hijacking of the religion of God For better understanding of the root cause of the ongoing conflict among People of the Book who are supposed to be worshipping the same God we need to take a step back take a deep breath and reflect rationally while ignoring all rhetoric and emotional bias in researching the past three thousand years of religious history And this is exactly what I did in writing this three volume book More specifically this book is addressing the religion of God to whom every human being from among the so called People of the Book today turns in prayer Whether soldiers or civilians when they are caught in the midst of the ongoing grisly and devastating wars some would pray to Yahweh others call upon Jesus Christ while Moslem brethren whisper the name of Allah upon taking their last breath Who is that God And why is He so shrouded with mystery Is He truly One and the Same God for all these people Or are we suffering from some self delusions and possibly hallucinations that may be the senseless products of our ancient religious fabrications and mythmaking Going back in time three thousand years brings us to one very special night when God was said to have come down in person onto Mount Sinai to have a close encounter with human beings through direct speech This three volume book examines the course of religious events from that magic and apocalyptic moment onwards till this day It took me twenty years of research to show that men who practiced hijacking long before they had wings have been quite active over the past three thousand years engaging in the lucrative business of hijacking the religion of God All three religious persuasions Judaism Christianity and Islam suffered the dire consequences of miserably failing to heed the words of our Merciful and Patient God No irony intended here in calling it a business and indeed a lucrative one because it brings the hijackers power enormous wealth and often glory all of which in the sight of God translate respectively into arrogance greed and most certainly infamy In developing the extensive critical review of religion presented herein detailing the respective histories of the selected three

Beginning Anew Jan de Vries, 2024-05-10 Beginning Anew is a work of memory and history a distinguished historian's account of his family's immigration to the United States in the aftermath of World War II and of his coming of age and education in a new land The author Jan de Vries raised in Minnesota is Professor Emeritus of History and Economics at the University of California at Berkeley where he also served as a dean and vice provost In Beginning Anew he reconstructs the world of his Dutch parents and ponders the factors pushing them to leave Holland and pulling them toward the United States From a distance it seems almost inevitable up close it was anything but Chance factors resulted in the family landing as farm laborers on a Minnesota farm in the cold snowy January of 1948 What resources were available to them as they made their way in their adopted land What makes the difference between success and failure Their community church and personal resources all played a role As did chance or was it Providence The author uses memory and history to delve in to the process of his becoming American or perhaps Minnesotan while finding that certain influences held him back from a full conversion He considers the spirit of the communities in which he lived the ethos that pervaded the public schools in which he was educated the influence of the Dutch Calvinist church in which he was raised but also the radio stations to which he listened and his many years of summer work as a construction laborer working side by side with his father All these elements formed a world now lost but brought to life in this book in an evocative work of historical reconstruction that is respectful of the past but unsentimentally direct in its assessments All the while Holland the country left behind continued to make its presence felt Letters and old magazine sent by relatives stories told and retold of Dutch life's pleasures and problems and finally an important trip to visit relatives after years of absence If the parents began anew with their decision to emigrate the son begins anew in a different way when he rejects more cautious paths and pursues higher education in New York City at Columbia University The first of his family to enter higher education the author has his own take on the academic and social life he experienced in the 1960s and this is revealed in candid accounts of his encounters with teachers and fellow students College life was transformative in many respects but not in all ways Beginning Anew essays the limits of transformation by education as De Vries is alternately exposed to luminaries of mid twentieth century American society and immersed every summer in construction labor with his father College led De Vries to an interest in history and economics The book s final section is an account of graduate study at Yale and the revolution then underway in the study of economic history Studying both history and economics De Vries is introduced to two distinct academic worlds and learns to appreciate and to critique them both His interests lead him back to the Netherlands where he encounters a very different academic environment and a circle of new colleagues who simultaneously influence his scholarship and his sense of identity All the while the Vietnam War social upheaval and marriage are intertwined with the launching of an academic career as the 1960s reach a point of climax and exhaustion
