The Love of God Christopher W. Morgan, 2016-09-30 Our understanding of the love of God has been tragically distorted The comfortable sentimentalized version we commonly encounter today is far from the biblical depiction of God s love Featuring contributions from well known evangelical scholars this multi disciplinary study presents the biblical view of the love of God from the perspectives of systematic theology biblical theology apologetics pastoral theology and ethics The contributors including D A Carson Andreas J K stenberger Raymond C Ortlund Jr Robert L Plummer and many others address a variety of issues related to how God s love is expressed in the Old and New Testaments the Trinity apologetics Christian living social justice and more This addition to the Theology in Community series will promote clear sound thinking about what Scripture means when it declares that God is love Part of the Theology in Community series

The Life of Christian Doctrine Mike Higton, 2020-07-09 The lives of Christian churches are shaped by doctrinal theology That is they are shaped by practices in which ideas about God and God s ways with the world are developed discussed and deployed This book explores those practices and asks why they matter for communities seeking to follow Jesus Taking the example of the Church of England this book highlights the embodied affective and located reality of all doctrinal practices and the biases and exclusions that mar them It argues that doctrinal theology can in principle help the church know God better even though doctrinal theologians do not know God better than their fellow believers It claims that it can help the church to hear in Scripture challenges to its life including to its doctrinal theology It suggests that doctrinal disagreement is inevitable but that a better quality of doctrinal disagreement is possible And finally it argues that by encouraging attention to voices that have previously been ignored doctrinal theology can foster the ongoing discovery of God s surprising work Christian Treasury,1850
