Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Susan Hynds, Jeffrey Wilhelm, 2013-08-21 This text for pre service and in service English education courses presents current methods of teaching literature to middle and high school students. The methods are based on social constructivist socio cultural theories of literacy learning and incorporate research on literary response conducted by the authors. Teaching Literature to Adolescents a totally new text that draws on ideas from the best selling textbook Teaching Literature in the Secondary School by Beach and Marshall reflects and builds on recent key developments in theory and practice in the field including the importance of providing students with a range of critical lenses for analyzing texts and interrogating the beliefs, attitudes, and ideological perspectives encountered in literature. Organization of the literature curriculum around topics, themes, or issues. Infusion of multicultural literature and emphasis on how writers portray race, class, and gender differences. Use of drama as a tool for enhancing understanding of texts. Employment of a range of different ways to write about literature. Integration of critical analysis of film and media texts with the study of literature. Blending of quality young adult literature into the curriculum and attention to students who have difficulty succeeding in literature classes due to reading difficulties, disparities between school and home cultures, attitudes toward school English, or lack of engagement with assigned texts or response activities. The interactive Web site contains recommended readings, resources, and activities. Links to Web sites and PowerPoint presentations and opportunities for readers to contribute teaching units to the Web site databases. Instructors and students in middle and high school English methods courses will appreciate the clear, engaging, useful integration of theory, methods, and pedagogical features offered in this text.

Broken but Not Defeated Amelia Rate, 2020-01-23 The worst of times can sometimes be the catalyst to the best of times. At the age of forty seven the author's worst time dragged her into a whirlpool of self pity. While suicide was knocking on her door, God sent an angel to save her life. God seems to delight in choosing unlikely saviors. Moses the stutter and Noah the alcoholic are two. The angel God sent to this author was a quadriplegic.

named Angelina Ayudar With perfect timing Angelina threw a lifesaver into the whirlpool that was taking the author down After working a few months with Angelina the author realized that this quadriplegic was living the fulfilled life the author craved Little by little Angelina taught the author how to live a spirit filled life and this has made all the difference The characters in the book have been given anonymous names in order to protect everyone involved The events in this book occurred over twenty years ago and many of the characters are deceased including Angelina and Silass Everything in this book is as true as the author s twenty year old memory can make it
