Once upon a time many years ago a man named Donald Mech courageously stepped into an exciting intriguing career the ancient art of beekeeping He actually made a living with honeybees Read the story of how Mech Apiaries honey traveled everywhere from Pike Place Market in Seattle all across the land And who could better tell this amazing story than his wife and helpmate of fifty five years Doris who was there through it all in real life by faith and a spin The Family Expositor; Or, A Paraphrase and Version of the New Testament Philip Doddridge,Job Orton,1831 Creation and New Creation Sean M McDonough,2016-04-01 In keeping with the Scriptural witness and the theological heritage this remarkable book examines the doctrine of creation alongside new creation The connection between the two creation and new creation has drawn renewed attention in the last several decades but the burden of Sean McDonough s argument is that this emphasis on creation and new creation has been a feature of the doctrine since the beginning whether in the eschatological reading of Genesis 1 that predominated at least until early modern times or the intertwining of the narratives of creation and redemption in thinkers from Irenaeus to Barth Whilst covering the traditional elements of the doctrine McDonough treats the important subject with a special emphasis on how these unfold in the story of what Gunton has called God s creation project

Forest Governance Jessica Stubenrauch,Felix Ekardt,Katharina Hagemann,Beatrice Garske,2022-04-22 This book analyses and develops overarching concepts for forest policy and forest governance and includes a detailed investigation into the historical discussion on forests It examines opportunities and limits for negative emissions in a sector that like peatlands appears significantly less ambivalent compared to highly technical large scale forms of climate geoengineering The analysis shows that the binding climate and biodiversity targets under international law are much more ambitious than most people assume Measured against that the volume critically reviews the potentials of afforestation and reforestation for climate mitigation which is often presented as the new saviour to fulfil the commitments of the Paris Agreement and to reach climate neutrality in the future It becomes clear that ultimately only biodiverse and thus resilient forests can function as a carbon sink in the long term The volume shows that the existing European and international forest governance approaches fail to comply with these targets and insights Furthermore the book develops a bundle of policy measures Quantity governance systems for livestock farming fossil fuels and similar drivers of deforestations represent the most important approach They are most effective when not directly targeting forests due to their heterogeneity but central damaging factors With regard to the dominant regulatory and subsidy based governance for forests we show that it remains necessary to supplement these quantity governance systems with certain easily graspable and thus controllable regulatory and subsidy regulations such as a regulatory protection of old growth forests with almost no exceptions extension of the livestock to land ratio established in organic farming to all farming far reaching restriction of bioenergy use to certain residues flanked by import bans and a national and international complete conversion of all agricultural and forest subsidies to public money for public services to promote nature conservation and afforestation in addition to the quantity control systems Lost in Transition Aaron D. Purcell, 2023-08-18 In Lost in Transition Removing Resettling and Renewing Appalachia Aaron D Purcell presents a thematic and chronological exploration of twentieth century removal and resettlement projects across southern Appalachia The book shares complex stories of loss and recollection that have grown and evolved over time This edited volume contains seven case studies of public land removal actions in Virginia Kentucky the Carolinas and Tennessee from the 1930s through the 1960s Some of the removals include the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Norris Basin Shenandoah National Park and the New River the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and the Keowee Toxaway Project in northwestern South Carolina Each essay asks key questions How did governmental entities throughout the twentieth century deal with land acquisition and removal of families and communities What do the oral histories of the families and communities particularly from different generations tell us about the legacies of these removals This collection reveals confrontations between past and present federal agencies and citizens and the original accounts of removal and resettlement and contemporary interpretations The result is a blending of practical historical concerns with contemporary nostalgia and romanticism which often deepen the complexity of Appalachian cultural life Lost in Transition provides a nuanced and insightful study of removal and resettlement projects that applies critical analysis of fact mythology and storytelling It illustrates the important role of place in southern Appalachian history This collection is a helpful resource to anthropologists folklorists and Appalachian studies scholars and a powerful volume of stories for all readers who reflect upon the importance of place and home Thinking Film Richard Kearney, Murray Littlejohn, 2023-06-29 Hailed as one of America s original art forms film has the distinctive character of crossing high and low art But film has done more than this According to American philosopher Stanley Cavell film was also a place where America in the 1930s and 1940s did its thinking a tradition that was taken up and enriched throughout world cinema Can film indeed think That is can film do the work of philosophy Following Cavell s lead to think along the tear of the analytic continental traditions this book draws from both sides of the philosophical divide to reflect on this question Spanning generations and disciplines pondering everything from art house classics to mainstream blockbusters Thinking Film Philosophy at the Movies aims to fling open the doors to this conversation on all sides Inquiring into both philosophy s word on film and film s word to philosophy the interdisciplinary dialogue of this book traverses the conceptual

Baptized Imagination Kerry Dearborn, 2016-04-15 The imagination has been called the principal organ for knowing and responding to disclosures of transcendent truth This book probes the theological sources of the imagination which make it a vital tool for knowing and responding to such disclosures Kerry Dearborn approaches areas of theology and imagination through a focus on the nineteenth century theologian and writer George MacDonald MacDonald can be seen as an icon whose life and work open a window to the intersection of word flesh and image He communicated the gospel through narrative and image rich forms which honour truth and address the intellectual imaginative spiritual and emotional needs of his readers MacDonald was also able to speak prophetically in a number of areas of contemporary concern such as the nature of suffering aging and death environmental degradation moral imagination and gender issues Dearborn explores influences which shaped him along with the wisdom he has offered in the formation of significant Christian writers in both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Authors such as C S Lewis G K Chesterton Dorothy Sayers J R R Tolkien W H Auden Frederick Buechner and others attribute to MacDonald key paradigm shifts and insights in their own lives A study of MacDonald does not offer a formulaic approach to theology and the imagination but the possibility of gleaning from his rich harvest relevant nourishment for our own day It also provides a context in which to assess potential weaknesses in imaginative approaches to theology

Learn lessons of humility, gratitude, patience, and forgiveness as she takes us on a journey of her lifetime path of art and creativity. Discover how her goal to become a successful artist led to the biggest project of her life: renovating her old country Victorian home. It became a major undertaking that would test both her spirit and her resolve to see the process through to the very end. Savoring country life while taking on the challenges of that renovation taught her the beauty to be found in the ordinary everyday life all around her on the acreage. _____ OR, A DISCOURSE CONCERNING THE HOLY SPIRIT John Flavel, 2016-07-27. A critical work into the working and theology of the most mysterious person of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit. Many times Christians recognize but do not focus on the Holy Spirit even though He is the most active person of the Godhead in our world today. This work goes to correct that and delves into Scripture to reveal to us how He works and what He is like so that we can properly revere Him as Almighty God.
