shifting styles differing narrative points of view and with the psychedelic culture of the period In Dune the long term strategies and intricate plots of warring Great Houses are driven not just by Heighliner spacecraft and lasguns but also by mind expanding drugs psychic powers dystopian themes race memories and martial arts allowing control of the mind and the body Substantial yet accessible chapters address philosophical questions including Is it morally right to create a savior Would interplanetary travel change human nature What is the deeper meaning of desert ecologies In conflict how can you stay light years ahead of your opponents Are there some drugs we would want to be addicted to Does history repeat itself Tens of thousands of years into an intergalactic future can humans endure or will we sacrifice what is most important in our humanity for power glory religion and of course the control of the spice Dune and Philosophy sets an intellectual course through sand and stars to find out

The Monomyth in American Science Fiction Films Donald E. Palumbo, 2014-11-05 One of the great intellectual achievements of the 20th century Joseph Campbell's The Hero with a Thousand Faces is an elaborate articulation of the monomyth the narrative pattern underlying countless stories from the most ancient myths and legends to the films and television series of today The monomyth's fundamental storyline in Campbell's words sees the hero venture forth from the world of the common day into a region of supernatural wonder fabulous forces are there encountered and a decisive victory is won the hero comes back from this mysterious adventure with the power to bestow boons to his fellow man Campbell asserted that the hero is each of us thus the monomyth's endurance as a compelling plot structure This study examines the monomyth in the context of Campbell's The Hero and discusses the use of this versatile narrative in 26 films and two television shows produced between 1960 and 2009 including the initial Star Wars trilogy 1977 1983 The Time Machine 1960 Logan's Run 1976 Escape from New York 1981 Tron 1982 The Terminator 1984 The Matrix 1999 the first 11 Star Trek films 1979 2009 and the Sci Fi Channel's miniseries Frank Herbert's Dune 2000 and Frank Herbert's Children of Dune 2003

Science Fiction and the Dismal Science Gary Westfahl, Gregory Benford, Howard V. Hendrix, 2019-11-27 Despite the growing importance of economics in our lives literary scholars have long been reluctant to consider economic issues as they examine key texts This volume seeks to fill one of these conspicuous gaps in the critical literature by focusing on various connections between science fiction and economics with some attention to related fields such as politics and government Its seventeen contributors include five award winning scholars five science fiction writers and a widely published economist Three topics are covered what noted science fiction writers like Robert A Heinlein Frank Herbert and Kim Stanley Robinson have had to say about our economic and political future how the competitive and ever changing publishing marketplace has affected the growth and development of science fiction from the nineteenth century to today and how the scholars who examine science fiction have themselves been influenced by the economics of academia Although the essays focus primarily on American science fiction the traditions of Russian and Chinese science fiction are also examined A comprehensive bibliography of works related to science fiction and economics will assist other readers and critics who are interested in this subject Science Fiction: Ten Explorations Colin N. Manlove, 1986-06-18 Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 Discovering Dune Dominic J. Nardi, N. Trevor Brierly, 2022-08-18 Frank Herbert's Dune is one of the most well known science fiction novels of all time and it is often revered alongside time honored classics like The Lord of the Rings Unlike Tolkien's work the Dune series has received remarkably little academic attention This collection includes fourteen new essays from various academic disciplines including philosophy political science disability studies Islamic theology environmental studies and Byzantine history that examine all six of Herbert's Dune books As a compendium it asserts that a multidisciplinary approach to the texts can lead to fresh discoveries Also included in this collection are an introduction by Tim O Reilly who authored one of the first critical appraisals of Herbert's writings in 1981 and a comprehensive bibliography of essential primary and secondary sources God Emperor of Dune Frank Herbert, 1981-01-01 Leto II God Emperor of Dune trades his humanity for immortality and as the magnificent sandworm of Dune desperately attempts to save mankind Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver, 2013-04-06 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community
