God's Shrink Michael Adamse, Ph.D., Michael Adamse, 2007-09-15 A Riveting Spiritual Thrill Ride Like most seasoned psychiatrists Dr Richard Johnson thought he'd heard it all His assuredness falters when a first time client arrives at his office and announces that he is God Listening intently to the man who is obviously suffering from severe psychosis he agrees to take the case What transpires over the course of the next nine sessions will test everything in the doctor's bag of tricks As he struggles to unravel the client's illness before he becomes a danger to himself a chilling series of coincidences and events cause him to question everything he thought he knew about himself his place in the world and life after death Was their time together the revelations of divinity or the ramblings of a delusional What's possible You decide Ten sessions A lifetime of answers Under normal circumstances the province of psychotherapy is practiced privately What is said behind closed doors remains there The patient can sing like a bird but the therapist is ethically and legally bound by confidentiality I can truthfully say that in all my years of practice I only gave up two patients The first involved serious child abuse and the second concerned an individual who was imminently suicidal These were clearly based on a duty to warn and protect What you will read in these pages is the third breach of my silence and has nothing to do with legalities or ethics It has to do with a patient whose initial claims represented the most elaborate and complex delusional system I've ever encountered I was given express permission to tell the story in a public forum Indeed I was encouraged to

I Pray Because I Can't Do Life Alone Clay Cantrell, 2021-08-06 This collection of poems had taken ten years to compile Clay began to feel compelled to express the feelings and thoughts he was having and that expression seemed to come naturally through poetry These poems include conversations he's had with his Lord and Savior feelings of love for people who have been in his life feelings of insecurity and depression battles with addiction and struggles with demons that he believes come in many ways into people's lives to destroy any relationship they may be having or developing with the Savior There are poems of how amazing the plan that God has orchestrated is as well as questions on why things happen the way they do Some of these poems come from deep inside him Some are introspective and some are a little more on the lighter side They re arranged in alphabetical order because there is really no other way to group them As Clay said it is a random collection of thoughts feelings and questions he s had as he developed his relationship with God and worked to learn how to deal with life Clay s hope is that whoever reads this book can find something they can relate to and something that helps them to understand that people don t have to be perfect They can ask God the tough questions People need to realize that He already knows what they think so they should just discuss whatever is on their minds with Him That s what a relationship is and that s what God wants with His people Clay has no idea if he will write another book This is God s plan and he is just thankful that He has allowed him to be part of it If He chooses to continue to use Clay in this way he will humbly obey

Down in the Chapel Joshua Dubler,2025-10-16 A bold and provocative interpretation of one of the most religiously vibrant places in America a state penitentiary Baraka Al Teddy and Sayyid four black men from South Philadelphia two Christian and two Muslim are serving life sentences at Pennsylvania s maximum security Graterford Prison All of them work in Graterford s chapel a place that is at once a sanctuary for religious contemplation and an arena for disputing the workings of God and man Day in day out everything is in its twisted way rather ordinary And then one of them disappears Down in the Chapel tells the story of one week at Graterford Prison We learn how the men at Graterford pass their time care for themselves and commune with their makers We observe a variety of Muslims Protestants Catholics and others at prayer and in study and song And we listen in as an interloping scholar of religion tries to make sense of it all When prisoners turn to God they are often scorned as con artists who fake their piety or pitied as wretches who cling to faith because faith is all they have left Joshua Dubler goes beyond these stereotypes to show the religious life of a prison in all its complexity One part prison procedural one part philosophical investigation Down in the Chapel explores the many uses prisoners make of their religions and weighs the circumstances that make these uses possible Gritty and visceral meditative and searching it is an essential study of American religion in the age of mass incarceration
