Gods Of The Morning A Birds Eye View Of A Changing World:

Gods of the Morning John Lister-Kaye,2015-08-15 Gods of the Morning follows the year through the turning of the seasons at Aigas the Highlands estate John Lister Kaye has transformed into a world renowned wildlife center John s affection wisdom and lyricism sings off every page bringing the natural world around him to life from the rookery filled with twenty nine nests and distinct bird calls to descriptions of the winter morning light from the wood mice and the squirrels preparing for winter to tracking a fox s path through the snow In particular it brings John s lifelong love of birds his gods of the morning to the fore In the Highland glens bird numbers plummet as their food supplies natural fruits and every kind of creeping crawling slithering or flying bug begin to disappear By the first frosts the hills will have emptied down to a few hardy stalwarts such as the golden eagles the raven and the irrepressible hooded crows Silence settles across the land The few species that are left frequent a changed world Soon only the buzzards and wood pigeons will hang on in the woods and the coniferous forests will be host to flocks of chaffinches tits siskins and crossbills passing through The Animal Who Writes Marilyn M. Cooper,2019-02-15 Writing begins with unconscious feelings of something that insistently demands to be responded to acted upon or elaborated into a new entity Writers make things that matter treaties new species software and letters to the editor as they interact with other humans of all kinds As they write they also continually remake themselves In The Animal Who Writes Cooper considers writing as a social practice and as an embodied behavior that is particularly important to human animals The author argues that writing is an act of composing enmeshed in nature cultures and is homologous with technology as a mode of making Gods inside of Mason Jars.
