My Diary and Early Life Lessons Michelle Kontoice, 2012-01-23 I am not an author but I've kept a journal for most of my life When I was in my teen years I wrote in my journal but also wished I could know the thoughts and read the journal of another teenager I thought I was the only one feeling what I was feeling My first intention with this book is to provide my diaries as a written display that the stages one goes through as a teenager while unique are also relatable My second intention is self-serving I put this project together to better understand myself and I would encourage others to do the same You may now come on the journey of my life starting with my early adolescence Follow me as I change my desired occupation more times than I can count get harassed for my sexual experimentation search for God and experience many other hills and valleys along my pathway This book is about one quarter of my journal I took out what I thought was repetitive or rather me just blabbering on and certain secrets about people that I wouldn't want revealed I also combined some entries to avoid repetition and all of the names in this book are fictitious Other than that everything is real and raw Because of these journals I clearly remember being a teenager I felt alone even though there were people all around me I felt completely misunderstood I constantly felt betrayed I felt awkwardly sexual And I felt full of a slight rage I couldn't understand I felt I had a lot to say with thousands of questions that no one cared to answer I wish someone had told me that it would get easier Everyone told me life gets tougher with responsibilities I believe that people don't truly remember what it was like to be a teenager Life is more stressful now but do people truly remember what it was like to feel as powerless as they did when they were teenagers I remember Its hard not to with my journals I am now in my midtwenties and going back through my life to try and learn more about myself This book presents my journey thus far
