realities of world Christianity and contributes to the scholarship of today's worldwide Christian witness The Church and Cultures Louis J. Luzbetak, 2015-03-31 Why should the church be concerned about cultures Louis J. Luzbetak began to answer this question twenty five years ago with the publication of The Church and Cultures: An Applied Anthropology for the Religious Worker. Reprinted six times and translated into five languages it became an undisputed classic in the field. Now by popular demand Luzbetak has thoroughly rewritten his work completely updating it in light of contemporary anthropological and missiological thought and in face of current world conditions. Serving as a handbook for a culturally sensitive ministry and witness The Church and Cultures introduces the non anthropologist to a wealth of scientific knowledge directly relevant to pastoral work, religious education, social action and liturgy in fact to all forms of missionary activity in the church. It focuses on a burning theological issue that of contextualization, the process by which a local church integrates its understanding of the Gospel text with the local culture context The Business of War James McCarty, Matthew Tapie, Justin Bronson Barringer, 2020-10-01 The Business of War incisively interrogates the development and contemporary implications of the military industrial complex. It exposes the moral dangers of life in neoliberal economies dependent upon war making for their growth and brings the Christian tradition's abundance of resources into conversation with this phenomenon. In doing so the authors invite us to rethink the moral possibilities of Christian life in the present day with an eye toward faithful resistance to the business of war and its influence in every aspect of our lives. In combining biblical, historical, theological and ethical analyses of the business of war the authors invite us to better understand it as a new moral problem that demands a new faithful response. With contributions from Pamela Brubaker, Stan Goff, Christina McRorie, Logan Mehl, Laituri Kara Slade, Won Chul Shin, David Swartz, Jonathan Tran, Myles Werntz, Matthew Whelan, Tobia Winright What About Us? Global Perspectives on Redressing Religious Inequalities Mariz Tadros, Olumide Adebimpe Aderounmu, Asif Aqeel, Manal Ahmed (Elehemier), Miriam Feldmann Kaye, Mary Gill, Mark Kaahwa, Philip Mader, Matome Jacky Makgoba, Moses Muhumuza, Rebecca Supriya Shah, Timothy Samuel Shah, Katharine Thane, Rifqah Tifloen, Tom Vanwing, 2022-10-26 How can we make religious equality a reality for those on the margins of society and politics? This book is about the individual and collective struggles of the religiously marginalised to be recognised and their inequalities religious or otherwise redressed. It is also about the efforts of civil society, governments, multilateral actors and scholars to promote freedom of religion or belief whatever shape they take. The actors and contexts that feature in this book are as diverse as health workers in Israel, local education authorities in Nigeria, indigenous movements in India, Uganda or South Africa and multilateral actors such as the Islamic Development Bank in Sudan and the World Bank in Pakistan. Some of the case studies engage with development discourses and narratives or are undertaken by development actors while other cases operate completely outside the international development paradigm. These case studies present some important insights which while highly relevant for their contexts also draw out important insights for academics, practitioners, activists and others who have an interest in redressing religious inequalities for socioeconomically marginalised populations
