Why Can't Church Be More Like an AA Meeting? Stephen R. Haynes, 2021-10-26 Do Christians need recovery Or is recovery something needed by the church itself Addiction whether to a substance or to a behavior is a problem within faith communities just like it is everywhere else But because churches are rarely experienced as safe places for dealing with addiction co addiction or the legacy of family dysfunction Christians tend to seek recovery from these conditions in Twelve Step fellowships Once they become accustomed to the ethos of vulnerability acceptance and healing that these fellowships provide however they are often left feeling that the church has failed them with many asking why can't church be more like an AA meeting Inspired by his own quest to find in church the sort of mutual support and healing he discovered in Twelve Step fellowships Stephen Haynes explores the history of Alcoholics Anonymous and its relationship to American Christianity He shows that while AA eventually separated from the Christian parachurch movement out of which it emerged it retained aspects of Christian experience that the church itself has largely lost comfort with brokenness and vulnerability an emphasis on honesty and transparency and suspicion toward claims to piety and respectability Haynes encourages Christians to reclaim these distinctive elements of the Twelve Step movement in the process of recovering church He argues that this process must begin with he calls Step 0 which as he knows from personal experience can be the hardest step the admission that despite appearances we are not fine Freedom from Addiction Workbook Neil T. Anderson, Mike Quarles, Julia Quarles, 1997-06-23 Tens of thousands of Christians are locked into the cycle of addiction particularly in the areas of alcohol and drug abuse While 12 step groups are definitely helping many people where is the incredible power of Christ in this process This study guide is based on the book Freedom from Addiction also written by Neil Anderson and Mike Julia Quarles This resource encourages those in addictive behaviors to tangibly process the steps to freedom in Christ outlined in the book The workbook stresses the need for a personal relationship with Christ as the foundation for the spiritual and physical freedom He offers as well as a need for personal responsibility and accountability to others to complete the process ASAP Recovery Chuck Chapman, 2024-10-28 The Bible says freedom is the birthright of every child of God who has been born again into His Kingdom Therefore whether you are here for sin addiction loss brokenness burnout needing a fresh move of God in your life or to find healing for the pains of the past or for your damaged emotions the Word of God promises that this freedom is available to all of His children And yet how many people do you know who are truly walking in this promised freedom ASAP Recovery Building on the Right Foundation addresses this disconnect between promise and experience by firmly reestablishing three foundational truths that the church has always believed but forgotten somewhere along the way All of the Bible is Inspired or written by God 2 Timothy 3 16 17 All of the Bible is Inerrant or without errors Psalm 18 30 All of the Bible is Infallible or incapable of failing to deliver on any of the things it says it will Isaiah 55 11 The reason these three foundational truth claims should matter to those in the church and especially to those of us in the recovery community is If you don't believe the first claim that God wrote the Book then you will never believe the second claim that it is without errors And if you never believe this second claim then you will never trust in nor experience for yourself the victory that the Word of God offers you over any and all addictions and willful sin in its third claim to be infallible By the end of this book you will know beyond a reasonable doubt that the Bible is the very words of God Himself and therefore above reproach thus establishing it as the only foundation to build our life and recovery on Furthermore you will also find that no matter who you are where you've been what you've done or how far gone you may be this book was written to take both the addicted and defeated Christian alike down the same path of Scripture until they arrive at their destination and heart's desire freedom ABOUT THE AUTHOR Having lost everything Chuck Chapman came to know Christ while in jail in 2007 Today he is the founder and director of ASAP Recovery Inc a faith based recovery program for those seeking cure over maintenance for any addiction or life controlling issue He is also the Pastor of Recovery Community Church in Covington KY Chuck has a major burden for biblical truth as well as the lost especially those who are bound by addiction He is a graduate of Teen Challenge International of Southwest Florida having overcome his own demons of addiction After rehab Chuck went on to acquire a Bachelor's Degree in Bible and Theology from God's Bible School College in Cincinnati Ohio He is also an ordained pastor in the Church of the Nazarene Chuck is the
