be valuable for those who are dissatisfied with popular hedonistic approaches to flourishing. Such people are ready for a change in approach but often do not have a clear alternative in view. The Volume will provide a clear alternative to popular culture's representation of the flourishing person which is largely vested in conspicuous consumption. The book will also be valuable for those who have considered alternatives to popular culture but who lack an informed basis on which to evaluate these alternatives. Finally, the book will be valuable for those who are committed to Christian spirituality but may not appreciate the rich resources which Christian faith offers for human flourishing. Amongst the latter group are included Christian leaders such as priests and pastors, voluntary church workers and lay people who may or may not be involved in formal religion but who long to flourish in their own lives and to enable others to do the same.

Timothy C. Geoffrion, 2005-11-14 In our postmodern experience oriented culture people are longing for greater authenticity integrity and depth in their pastors and leaders Board directors church members and staff alike are all eagerly seeking leaders who effectively integrate their spirituality and leadership Pastors and executives however often struggle with knowing how to integrate their spiritual values and practices into their leadership and management roles Designed for pastors executives administrators managers coordinators and all who see themselves as leaders and who want to fulfill their God given purpose The Spirit Led Leader addresses the critical fusion of spiritual life and leadership for those who not only want to see results but who also desire to care just as deeply about who they are and how they lead as they do about what they produce and accomplish Geoffrion creates a new vision for spiritual leadership as partly an art partly a result of careful planning and always a working of the grace of God
