

GUARDIANSHIPS: A STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE

Step 2: Follow-up

1. After facility staff member has submitted the new guardianship request, Michael Shapiro-Barr drafts the guardianship petition and related documents for attorney review.
2. After attorney review, Michael follows-up with facility staff member, to arrange for a notary/messenger to bring the Petitions and other documents to the facility for staff member's signature.
3. After staff member signs documents, he/she includes originals of the Statement of Acts (be sure to get the Statement of Acts signed by the nominated guardian as soon as possible) and Examining Physician's or Psychologist's Report in the envelope that are hand delivered back to Michael via the notary.

Note: It is very important to provide a notarized Statement of Acts, signed by the nominated guardian, in the envelope sent back to Michael (whenever possible).

The Adult Guardianship Experiment Terry Carney, David Tait, 1997 During the 1980s Australia remade its adult guardianship laws that governed people unable to manage their own affairs or property The reforms embraced UN principles and took a common pattern with reformist North American and European countries with one key exception The rest of the world chose courts to administer the laws Australia created specialist multi disciplinary tribunals This book compares the work of guardianship tribunals and courts and argues forcefully that Australia s adult guardianship experiment in popular justice is a success Carney and Tait present work on the Australian tribunals in NSW and Victoria and compare them with overseas studies on courts and the Family Court of Australia On every measure tribunals outperform courts They are more inclusive They pay more attention to social context and functioning and are better at incorporating the affected person into the hearing striking an alliance with them Courts by contrast favour alliances with families and the medical profession Even in areas where courts might be expected to perform better they are less successful than the tribunals collecting and testing evidence and avoiding unnecessary intervention

Evaluation for Guardianship Eric Y. Drogin, Curtis L. Barrett, 2010-04-12 Forensic mental health assessment FMHA has grown into a specialization informed by research and professional guidelines This series presents up to date information on the most important and frequently conducted forms of FMHA The 19 topical volumes address best approaches to practice for particular types of evaluation in the criminal civil and juvenile family areas Each volume contains a thorough discussion of the relevant legal and psychological concepts followed by a step by step description of the assessment process from preparing for the evaluation to writing the report and testifying in court Volumes include the following helpful features Boxes that zero in on important information for use in evaluations Tips for best practice and cautions against common pitfalls Highlighting of relevant case law and statutes Separate list of assessment tools for easy reference Helpful glossary of key terms for the particular topic In making recommendations for best practice authors consider empirical support legal relevance and consistency with ethical and professional standards These volumes offer invaluable guidance for anyone involved in conducting or using forensic evaluations This book considers those legal ethical and assessment issues that arise when forensic mental health professionals are asked to evaluate the capacity of adults to make independent decisions about the management of their personal and financial affairs As our population ages the competence of those who are elderly and mentally infirmed may be challenged more and more frequently and this book will be an invaluable resource for those involved in assessing that competence
