Unfolding Afterglow Brooke A. Hofess, 2016-07-27 This title examines professional learning in the contemporary milieu of public education considering the impact of No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top on such encounters for art educators Drawing from prominent scholars of philosophy and education Greene Dewey Gadamer aesthetic experiential play is theorized as a catalyst for teacher renewal through the embodied intensities Merleau Ponty Deleuze it prompts an aesthetic swell and afterglow The swell is conceptualized as a movement that unmoors teachers as learners setting them adrift towards unanticipated surprising possibilities Afterglow is an illuminated space that unfolds with a commitment and openness to move in swell towards the ever expanding new This text invites readers into the findings of a qualitative research inquiry by unfolding a yearlong correspondence of letterpress printed postcards and hand rendered letters exchanged between the author and a cohort of K 12 art teachers The innovative epistolary form evokes the relational and arts based educational research methodologies that informed this lively aesthetic inquiry providing new directions and possibilities for both art educators and arts researchers to explore Advocating for more complex understandings regarding how educators become renewed as artists and as teachers this poetic and pictorial text provokes an expanded vision for what counts as professional learning and the processes by which teacher renewal is nourished and experienced Theorists pedagogues methodologists and researchers alike will find themselves in aesthetic play as they experience the flows swells and intensities that Hofsess beautifully crafts A brilliant piece of art Mark D Vagle The University of Minnesota Hofsess refocuses our attention to what really matters in education how as Elliot Eisner said the teaching of art is more than the teaching of art Richard Siegesmund Northern Illinois University Title illuminates the challenges and possibilities of maintaining transformative experiences in the everyday practice of K 12 art education Tracie Costantino Rhode Island School of Design Brooke Hofsess Assistant Professor at Appalachian State University received her MA in Art Art Education from Teachers College Columbia University and her PhD in Art Education from The University of Georgia She comes to academia with seven years of professional experience as a K 12 art educator Her research on teacher education and renewal has received honors including the Elliot Eisner Doctoral Research Award in Art Education from the National Art Education Association and the Outstanding Dissertation Award from the Arts Based Educational Research special interest group of the American Educational Research Association Art Practice as Research Graeme Sullivan, 2010 Art Practice as Research Second Edition continues to present a compelling argument that the creative and cultural inquiry undertaken by artists is a form of research The text explores themes practices and contexts of artistic inquiry and positions them within the discourse of research Sullivan argues that legitimate research goals can be achieved by choosing different methods than those offered by the social sciences The common denominator in both approaches is the attention given to rigor and systematic inquiry Artists emphasize the role of the imaginative intellect in creating criticizing and constructing knowledge that is not only new but also has the capacity to transform human understanding The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world's foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade. Notably, several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi-cultural music education, gender issues in music education, and non-musical outcomes of music education. Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians' health, training music teachers, and evaluating music education programs. Philosophical issues such as musical cognition, the philosophy of research, theory, curriculum, and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues. In addition to surveying the literature, each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study. Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels, from early childhood to motivation and self-regulation, this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers, researchers, and scholars.

Exploring Aesthetic Approaches to Arts Integration Marina Sotiropoulou-Zormpala, 2025-05-30. This book re-examines the role of arts integration in the preschool and primary school curricula, arguing for the creation of an educational environment where children can process every taught subject as an aesthetic stimulus. Deriving from the author's earlier work, this scholarly volume attempts to develop novel criteria for arts integration curricula through examining the effects of different indicative arts integration activities implemented in preschool and primary classrooms. Taking a pedagogical approach, chapters enable readers to connect theoretical insights, implementation strategies, and corresponding methodological guidelines. Ultimately, this book argues that the aesthetic integration of the arts into the curricula of preschool and primary schools has three distinct important effects on the educational process: fostering a more creative and productive education through a multilevel approach; creating opportunities for holistic education by enhancing children's multifaceted learning involvement; and promoting multimodal and inclusive education by providing diverse resources of meaning-making. This book will be of interest to researchers, postgraduate students, and academics in the fields of primary education, curriculum studies, teacher education, and arts education. Educational policymakers and teacher trainers may also benefit from this volume more broadly.

Community Arts Education Ching-Chiu Lin, Anita Sinner, Rita L. Irwin, 2023-08-14. This edited collection offers global perspectives on the transverse boundary-blurring possibilities of community arts education. Invoking transversality as an overarching theoretical framework and a methodological structure, 55 contributors (community professionals, scholars, artists, educators, and activists) from sixteen countries offer studies and practical cases exploring the complexities of community arts education at all levels. Such complexities include challenges created by globalizing phenomena such as the COVID-19 pandemic, ongoing efforts to achieve justice for Indigenous peoples, continuing movement of immigrants and refugees, growing recognition of issues related to equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace, and the increasing impact of grassroots movements and organizations. Chapters are grouped into four thematic clusters: Connections, Practices, Spaces, and Relations, that map these and other intersecting assemblages of transversality. Thinking transversally about community art education not only shifts our understanding of knowledge from a passive construct to an active component of social life but redefines art education as a distinctive practice emerging from the complex relationships that form community

Music Education for Changing Times Thomas A. Regelski, J. Terry Gates, 2009-10-08 Based on topics that frame the debate about the future of professional music education this book explores the issues that music teachers must confront in a rapidly shifting educational landscape The book aims to challenge thought and change minds It presents a star cast of internationally prominent thinkers in and beyond music education These thinkers deliberately challenge many time worn traditions in music education with regard to musicianship culture and society leadership institutions interdisciplinarity research and theory and curriculum This is the first book to confront these issues in this way This unique book has emerged from fifteen years of international dialog by The MayDay Group an organization of more than 250 music educators from over 20 countries who meet yearly to confront issues in music teaching and learning
