Black Children Harriette Pipes McAdoo, 2002. Black Children Second Edition. collects current empirical research unique to the experiences and situations of black children and their parents. As the editor emphasizes, African American children develop a duality for their existence. To be fully functional they must develop the skills to do well simultaneously in two different cultures, both black and non black. This volume explores the meaning of this duality in four distinct environments: socioeconomic, parental, internal and educational. The complex picture that emerges discredits many of the myths that surround black childhood development and initiates in depth exploration into the diversities of the African American experience. Taken together, the entries in this volume provide a valuable collection suitable as both a core or supplemental textbook for scholars, advanced undergraduate and graduate students and professionals in the fields of education, counseling and clinical psychology, social work, family services and related social services who are concerned about the optimal growth and development of black children.

Racism in Contemporary African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Suriyan Panlay, 2016-10-25. Applying critical race theory to contemporary African American children's and young adult literature, this book explores one key racial issue that has been overlooked both in race studies and literary scholarship: internalised racism. By systematically examining the issue of internalised racism and its detrimental psychological effects, particularly towards the young and vulnerable, this book defamiliarises the very racial issue that otherwise has become normalised in American racial discourse, reaffirming the relevance of race, racism and racialisation in contemporary America. Through readings of works by Jacqueline Woodson, Sharon G Flake, Tanita S Davis, Sapphire, Rosa Guy and Nikki Grimes, Suriyan Panlay develops a new critical discourse on internalised racism by studying its effects on marginalised children, its manifestations and the fictional narrative strategies that can be used to regain and reclaim a sense of self.

The authors reveal a history of racist practices against Blacks in many systems.
