Winter, 1882 A Sea of Love Claudia national trade bibliography Schnurmann, 2018-07-10 A Sea of Love presents 95 letters exchanged between Hamburg and Antebellum USA by the famous Berlin born scholar encyclopedist and knowledge broker Francis Lieber 1798 1872 and his wife Hamburg born Mathilde in 1839 1845 Their letters offer rare insights in the privacy of marriage and family life self perceptions notions of surroundings as well as mental settings of the spouses Beyond genuine individual phenomena of their Atlantic emotions their epistles show ways and methods of international communication and networking Their writings reflect general notions and ideas shared by well educated citizens of an Atlantic Republic of Letters connected by culture interests and emotions Conjectures of Order Michael O'Brien, 2004-03-01 In this magisterial history of intellectual life Michael O Brien analyzes the lives and works of antebellum Southern thinkers and reintegrates the South into the larger tradition of American and European intellectual history O Brien finds that the evolution of Southern intellectual life paralleled and modified developments across the Atlantic by moving from a late Enlightenment sensibility to Romanticism and lastly to an early form of realism Volume 1 describes the social underpinnings of the Southern intellect by examining patterns of travel and migration the formation of ideas on race gender ethnicity locality and class and the structures of discourse expressed in manuscripts and print culture In Volume 2 O Brien looks at the genres that became characteristic of Southern thought Throughout he pays careful attention to the many individuals who fashioned the Southern mind including John C Calhoun Louisa McCord James Henley Thornwell and George Fitzhugh Placing the South in the larger tradition of American and European intellectual history while recovering the contributions of numerous influential thinkers and writers O Brien's masterwork demonstrates the sophistication and complexity of Southern intellectual life before 1860 Military Rules, Regulations and the Code of War Richard Shelly Hartigan, 2017-07-05 Military commanders from ancient time had set down rules and regulations to discipline their troops From the Pharaohs on commanders directed the strategy tactics and camp discipline of the often unruly hosts of soldiers under their command They had one aim to create an efficient fighting force Military officers camp followers and cooks were all expected to perform their services according to mandate and in light of the best interests of the armed force and the fighting soldiery Modern commanders have exemplified the same passion for military discipline to produce an effective combat machine Military analyses derived from Roman law contained enough historical examples to fill an encyclopedia Yet although addressed to the problems of their day they generally remained the private counsel of scholars and had little impact on political and military decisions While theorists of international law were developing a body of rules to govern warfare practitioners of conflict were largely moved by the motives of military necessity Under the dual auspices of military necessity and national self interest the code of the military commander was simple maintain a disciplined fighting force in order to achieve military victory To remedy this gap between theory and practice a practical guide was needed which would briefly describe for commanders in the field their rights and obligations of belligerents as custom and theory had developed them Then political and military policy could be expected to conform to the theoretical law of nations This was the synthesis that the Lieber code proposed Originally published in as Lieber s Law and the Code of War this paperback edition bears a new title that more precisely identifies the subjects covered
