Literary Analysis—study questions

1. Why is it so important to Nick that he “get somebody” for Gatsby?
2. Why are Gatsby’s father, Nick and the owl-eyed man the only named characters that come to the funeral?
3. What is Nick thinking as he repeats the phrase it just shows you when Gatsby’s father shows him Gatsby’s early schedule for self-improvement?
4. Why does the owl-eyed man say, “The poor son-of-a-bitch,” (183) after the funeral? Why is he given the last word at the funeral?
5. Are we [the readers] supposed to agree with Jordan that Nick isn’t straightforward or honest or with Nick when he says he’s “five years too old to lie to myself and call it honor”?
6. At the end of the novel, why does Nick return to Gatsby’s abandoned house and rub out the obscene word on the steps? (188)

Further considerations

Nick’s reflection, two years later: “After two years, I remember the rest of that day, and that night and the next day, only as an endless drill of police and photographers and newspaper men in and out of Gatsby’s front door.” (171)

Analyze Fitzgerald’s writing about Nick: “But all this part of it seemed remote and unessential. I found myself on Gatsby’s side, and alone.” (172)

Again, analyze Fitzgerald’s writing:

“But as they drew back the sheet and looked at Gatsby with unmoved eye, his protest continued in my brain.

“Look here, old sport, you got to get somebody for me. You’ve got to try hard. I can’t go through this alone.” (173)

Descriptions, mannerisms, dialogue of Henry C. Gatz

Significance of Hopalong Cassidy book reference [romanticism] and “schedule”

More on Fitzgerald’s style:

“Even when the East excited me most, even when I was most keenly aware of its superiority to the bored, sprawling, swollen towns beyond the Ohio, with their interminable inquisitions which spared on the children and the very old—even then it had always for me a quality of distortion...” (185)

and

“After Gatsby’s death the East was haunted for me like that, distorted beyond my eyes’ power of correction. So when the blue smoke of brittle leaves was in the air and the wind blew the wet laundry stiff on the line I decided to back home.” (185)

Mara Lee Grayson, 2020-03-20 To generate opportunities for transformative learning educators must create learning environments that help students feel safe and encourage them to grapple with potentially difficult material The trigger warning a brief statement informing students of potential distressing or re-traumatizing content has been offered as a way to do just that but this practice is neither as effective nor as equitable as it may seem Intentionally or indirectly the trigger warning limits the extent to which students are encouraged to engage in transformative critical conversations and reinforces the culture of silence that prevails in many educational spaces Emerging as a response to trauma amid an educational environment that professes student responsiveness and celebrates diversity yet perpetuates the marginalization of many of the bodies in the classroom the trigger warning is not the problem but it is not the solution either What does this mean for the faculty members teaching this new generation of college students And the teachers who find this generation's younger siblings in their high school classrooms Drawing upon original research Mara Lee Grayson tracks the rise of the trigger warning within historical and contemporary educational contexts explores its potentialities limitations and abuses as praxis and offers curricular suggestions for high school and college instructors seeking to implement equitable antiracist pedagogies that simultaneously encourage students well being provoke intellectual and emotional growth and challenge the cultures of silence that maintain inequity on school campuses Literature: How to Read and Understand the World Jackson
