Irish Studies in Brazil Munira H. Mutran, Laura P. Z. Izarra, 2005 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 Forty chapters written by leading scholars across the world describe the latest thinking on modern Irish poetry The Handbook begins with a consideration of Yeats's early work and the legacy of the 19th century The broadly chronological areas which follow covering the period from the 1910s through to the 21st century allow scope for coverage of key poetic voices in Ireland in their historical and political context From the experimentalism of Beckett MacGreevy and others of the modernist generation to the refashioning of Yeats's Ireland on the part of poets such as MacNeice Kavanagh and Clarke mid century through to the controversially titled post 1969 Northern Renaissance of poetry this volume will provide extensive coverage of the key movements of the modern period The Handbook covers the work of among others Paul Durcan Thomas Kinsella Brendan Kennelly Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian and Ciaran Carson The thematic sections interspersed throughout chapters on women's poetry religion translation painting music stylistics allow for comparative studies of poets north and south across the century Central to the guiding spirit of this project is the Handbook's consideration of poetic forms and a number of essays explore the generic diversity of poetry in Ireland its various manipulations reinventions and sometimes repudiations of traditional forms The last essays in the book examine the work of a new generation of poets from Ireland concentrating on work published in the last two decades by Justin Quinn Leontia Flynn Sinead Morrissey David Wheatley Vona Groarke and others The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton, 2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times Irish Literature Since 1990 Michael Parker, Scott Brewster, 2013-01-18 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This is a distinctive book that examines the diversity and energy of writing in a period marked by the unparalleled global prominence of Irish culture This collection provides a wide ranging survey of fiction poetry and drama over the last two decades considering both well established figures and also emerging writers who have received relatively little critical attention Contributors explore the central developments within Irish culture and society that have transformed the writing and reading of identity sexuality history and gender The book examines the impact of Mary Robinson s Presidency growing cultural confidence back home legislative reform on sexual and moral issues the uneven effects generated by the resurgence of the Irish economy the Celtic Tiger myth Ireland s increasingly prominent role in Europe and changing reputation In its breadth and critical currency this book will be of particular interest to academics and students working in the fields of literature drama and cultural studies Refrains for Moving Bodies Derek P. McCormack, 2014-02-07

Refrains for Moving Bodies Derek P McCormack explores the kinds of experiments with experience that can take place in the affective spaces generated when bodies move Drawing out new connections between thinkers including Henri Lefebvre William James John Dewey Gregory Bateson Félix Guattari and Gilles Deleuze McCormack argues for a critically affirmative experimentalism responsive to the opportunities such spaces provide for rethinking and remaking maps of experience Foregrounding the rhythmic and atmospheric qualities of these spaces he demonstrates the particular value of Deleuze and Guattari s concept of the refrain for thinking and diagramming affect bodies and space times together in creative ways putting this concept to work to animate empirical encounters with practices and technologies as varied as dance therapy choreography radio sports commentary and music video What emerges are geographies of experimental participation that perform and disclose inventive ways of thinking within the myriad spaces where the affective capacities of bodies are modulated through moving Thinking and Practicing Reconciliation Leo W. Riegert, Jill Scott, 2013-12-12

Thinking and Practicing Reconciliation asserts that literary representations of conflict offer important insights into processes of resolution and practices of reconciliation and that it is crucial to bring these debates into the post secondary classroom The essays collected here aim to help teachers think deeply about the ways in which we can productively integrate literature on as reconciliation into our curricula Until recently scholarship on teaching and learning in higher education has not been widely accepted as equal to research in other fields This volume seeks to establish that serious analysis of pedagogical practices is not only a worthy and legitimate academic pursuit but also that it is crucial to our professional development as researcher educators The essays in this volume take seriously both the academic study of literature dealing with the aftermath of gross human rights violations and the teaching of this literature The current generation of college aged students is deeply affected by the proximity of violence in our global world This collection recognizes educators responsibility to enable future generations to analyze conflict whether local or global and participate in constructive discourses of resolution Ultimately Thinking and Practicing Reconciliation charts a course from theory to practice and offers new perspectives on the very human endeavor of storytelling as a way to address human rights injustices In their focus on pedagogical strategies and frameworks the essays in this volume also demonstrate that as educators our engagement with students can indeed produce practices of reconciliation that start in the classroom and move beyond it
