A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Eighth Edition Kate L. Turabian, 2013-04-09
A little more than seventy five years ago Kate L Turabian drafted a set of guidelines to help students understand how to write cite and formally submit research writing Seven editions and more than nine million copies later the name Turabian has become synonymous with best practices in research writing and style Her Manual for Writers continues to be the gold standard for generations of college and graduate students in virtually all academic disciplines Now in its eighth edition A Manual for Writers of Research Papers Theses and Dissertations has been fully revised to meet the needs of today s writers and researchers The Manual retains its familiar three part structure beginning with an overview of the steps in the research and writing process including formulating questions reading critically building arguments and revising drafts Part II provides an overview of citation practices with detailed information on the two main scholarly citation styles notes bibliography and author date an array of source types with contemporary examples and detailed guidance on citing online resources The final section treats all matters of editorial style with advice on punctuation capitalization spelling abbreviations table formatting and the use of quotations Style and citation recommendations have been revised throughout to reflect the sixteenth edition of The Chicago Manual of Style With an appendix on paper format and submission that has been vetted by dissertation officials from across the country and a bibliography with the most up to date listing of critical resources available A Manual for Writers remains the essential resource for students and their teachers

A Concise Survey of Western Civilization Brian A. Pavlac, 2015-02-19 This lively text offers a brief readable description of our common Western heritage as it began in the first human societies and developed in ancient Greece and Rome then through the Middle Ages Providing a focused narrative and interpretive structure Pavlac uses the joined terms supremacies and diversities to develop themes of conflict and creativity His easily accessible yet deeply knowledgeable book covers the basic information that all educated adults should know

Translated Christianities Mark Z. Christensen, 2014-05-15 Beginning in the sixteenth century ecclesiastics and others created religious texts written in the native languages of the Nahuatl and Yucatec Maya These texts played an important role in the evangelization of central Mexico and Yucatan Translated Christianities is the first book to provide readers with English translations of a variety of Nahuatl and Maya religious texts It pulls Nahuatl and Maya sermons catechisms and confessional manuals out of relative obscurity and presents them to the reader in a way that illustrates similarities differences and trends in religious text production throughout the colonial period The texts included in this work are diverse Their authors range from Spanish ecclesiastics to native assistants from Catholics to Methodists and from sixteenth century Nahuas to nineteenth century Maya Although translated from its native language into English each text illustrates the impact of European and native cultures on its content Medieval tales popular in Europe are transformed to accommodate a New World native audience biblical figures assume native identities and texts admonishing Christian behavior are tailored to meet the demands of a colonial native population Moreover the book provides the first translation and analysis of a Methodist catechism written in Yucatec Maya to convert the Maya of Belize and Yucatan Ultimately readers are offered an uncommon opportunity to read for themselves the translated Christianities that Nahuatl and Maya texts contained
