Is Voting For Young People Great Questions In Politics:

Is Voting for Young People? Martin P. Wattenberg, 2020-04-08 In 2016 Hillary Clinton managed to win the Democratic nomination despite losing young voters to Bernie Sanders by a margin of 73 to 26 percent The fact that senior citizens were four times more likely to vote in the primaries than young people enabled her to survive her lack of youth appeal But in the general election Clinton's problems with young people turned into her Achilles heel Young people failed to come out to vote as much as she needed or to support her in sufficient numbers when they did vote What will happen in 2020 another history making election Already in late 2019 journalists were referring to the generation gap as the most important divide among Democratic voters Is Voting for Young People explores the reasons why young people are less likely to follow politics and vote in the United States as well as in many other established democracies no matter who the candidates are or what the issues may be This brief accessible and provocative book suggests ways of changing that New to the Fifth Edition For the first time since its original 2006 publication the entire text has been updated with the most recent available data and analysis A new chapter has been added Young People and Politics in the Trump Era New chapter opening vignettes illustrate one of the key points in each chapter dynamics of non conventional forms of civic and political activism this volume attempts to understand the impact of non conventional forms of political participation on voting behaviour The internal domestic conditions of the country as well as its role in the international arena have dramatically changed since 2013 and are constantly evolving due to the domestic societal and political cleavages and the regional problems in the Middle East Yet the papers in the book reflect upon the significance of occupygezi nowadays demonstrating not only its importance in questioning the link between the patrimonial state and its citizens but also for stimulating participatory behaviours The chapters originally published as a special issue in Turkish Studies

Young People's Voting Behaviour in Europe Nicola Maggini, 2016-10-31 This book uses various concepts of age to examine young people's voting behaviour in six European countries between 1981 and 2000 It addresses questions such as what are the determinants of voting choices among young people and to what extent are these factors different from those of adults Through an innovative approach aimed at studying party choice with a strong empirical orientation the author argues that age is less important in influencing voting choices than having been young and socialized to politics in a given historical period Ultimately values and political factors explain young people's voting choices more than social identities which marks a change from previous generations This book will appeal to students and scholars in comparative politics electoral behaviour party politics and political sociology

Youth Activism in Environmental Politics, 2nd Edition Matt Henn, Sarah Pickard, 2023-02-02 Recently important new research has emerged to explain the large intergenerational cleavages in values and political preferences in many contemporary societies In most established democracies and many newer democracies young people are more likely to possess progressive values and are much more cosmopolitan in their outlook socially liberal accepting of cultural diversity and outward looking than older generations They tend to reject mainstream electoral politics and authoritarian nationalist forms of populism in favour of alternative progressive political parties and movements Indeed there is burgeoning evidence of a global tendency towards young people s support for and participation in new styles of non institutionalised political action that seem to better fit their life styles and to permit the actualisation of their political aspirations Although there is a considerable body of existing literature that examines the rise of such values and political participation preferences there is little work that focuses on the relationship with the prioritisation of environmental issues and environmental activism as evidenced in the September 2019 global climate strikes The goal of the current Research Topic is to explore the contemporary realities and patterns of youth participation in environmental politics in different societies As such we welcome manuscripts of original research and conceptualization that address the different practices of youth as they seek to effect environmental change and also their motivations for doing so Contributions are welcome from scholars youth practitioners and activists operating in a range of different settings and using diverse disciplinary and multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives
