Esposito, 1998 The essays collected in this book place this issue in its historical context and offer case studies of Muslim societies from North Africa to Southeast Asia These fascinating studies shed light on the impact of the Islamic resurgence on gender issues in Iran Egypt Jordan Pakistan Oman Bahrain the Philippines and Kuwait Taken together the essays reveal the wide variety that exists among Muslim societies and believers and the complexity of the issues under consideration Inside the Gender Jihad Amina Wadud, 2013-10-01 A world renowned professor of Islamic studies Amina Wadud has long been at the forefront of what she calls the gender jihad the struggle for justice for women within the global Islamic community In 2005 she made international headlines when she helped to promote new traditions by leading the Muslim Friday prayer in New York City provoking a firestorm of media controversy and kindling charges of blasphemy among conservative Muslims worldwide In this provocative book Inside the Gender Jihad Wadud brings a wealth of experience from the trenches of the jihad to make a passionate argument for gender inclusiveness in the Muslim world Knitting together scrupulous scholarship with lessons drawn from her own experiences as a woman she explores the array of issues facing Muslim women today including social status education sexuality and leadership A major contribution to the debate on women and Islam Amina Wadud's vision for changing the status of women within Islam is both revolutionary and urgent Islam and Gender Justice V. A. Mohamad Ashrof, 2005 A solemn attempt to rediscover the Quranic basis of gender equality determining the status of women in Islam to recapture the spirit of Quranic revelation further to reconstruct Islamic theology from an egalitarian perspectives A comprehensive and exhaustive study

Journeys Toward Gender Equality in Islam Ziba Mir-Hosseini, 2022-04-07 If justice is an intrinsic value in Islam why have women been treated as second class citizens in Islamic legal tradition Today the idea of gender equality inherent to contemporary conceptions of justice presents a challenge to established patriarchal interpretations of Shari'a In thought provoking discussions with six influential Muslim intellectuals Abdullahi An-Na'im Amina Wadud Asma Lamrabet Khaled Abou El Fadl Mohsen Kadivar and Sedigheh Vasmaghi Ziba Mir-Hosseini explores how egalitarian gender laws might be constructed from within the Islamic legal framework Gender, Politics, and Islam Therese Saliba, Carolyn Allen, Judith A. Howard, 2002 This collection extends the boundaries of global feminism to include Islamic women Challenging Orientalist assumptions of Muslim women as victims of Islam these essays focus on women's negotiations for identity power and agency as participants in religious cultural and nationalist movements This book gathers Signs essays on women in the Middle East South Asia and the Diaspora to explore how women negotiate identities and attempt to gain political economic and legal rights This collection shows Islam to be a diverse set of variable practices and beliefs shaped by region nation ethnicity sect and class as well as by responses to many cultural and economic processes In examining women's participation in religious and nationalist projects these critics debate controversial issues Does Islamic feminism provide an alternative revolutionary paradigm to Eurocentric liberal humanism and western feminism Is Islam more oppressive to women than the modern secular state How are the lives and texts of Arab and Muslim women constructed for local or western consumption These essays expose the shortcomings of the secularist assumptions of many recent feminist analyses which continue to treat religion in general and fundamentalism in particular as a tool of oppression used against women rather than as a viable form of feminist agency producing contradictory effects for its participants The essays in this book first appeared in Signs Journal of Women in Culture and Society Contributors S M Shamsul Alam Amal Amireh Mary Elaine Heglund Shahnaz Khan Anouar Majid Val Moghadam Julia Peteet Elora Shehabudin Gabriele vom Bruck Islam, Gender, and Democracy in Comparative Perspective Jocelyne Cesari, José Casanova, 2017 This collection reframes the debate around Islam and women's rights within a broader comparative literature that examines the complex and contingent historical relationships between religion secularism democracy law and gender equality Gender Equity in Islam Jamal A. Badawi, 1995 A overview of the status and rights of Muslim women as defined by the Qur'an and Sunnah Islam: Islam, gender and family Bryan S. Turner, 2003 Gender in Judaism and Islam Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet, Beth S. Wenger, 2014-12-05 Jewish and Islamic histories have long been interrelated Both traditions emerged from ancient cultures born in the Middle East and both are rooted in texts and traditions that have often excluded women At the same time both groups have recently seen a resurgence in religious orthodoxy among women as well as growing feminist movements that challenge traditional religious structures In the United States Jews and Muslims operate as minority cultures carving out a place for religious and ethnic distinctiveness The time is ripe for a volume that explores the relationship between these two religions through the prism of gender Gender in Judaism and Islam brings together scholars working in the fields of Judaism and Islam to address a diverse range of topics including gendered readings of texts legal issues in marriage and divorce ritual practices and women s literary expressions and historical experiences along with feminist influences within the Muslim and Jewish communities and issues affecting Jewish and Muslim women in contemporary society Carefully crafted including section introductions by the editors to highlight big picture insights offered by the contributors the volume focuses attention on the theoretical innovations that gender scholarship has brought to the study of Muslim and Jewish experiences At a time when Judaism and Islam are often discussed as though they were inherently at odds this book offers a much needed reconsideration of the connections and commonalities between these two traditions It offers new insights into each of these cultures and invites comparative perspectives that deepen our understanding of both Islam and Judaism

Muslim Women and Gender Justice Dina El Omari,Juliane Hammer,Mouhanad Khorchide,2019-09-20 This volume brings together the work of a group of Islamic studies scholars from across the globe They discuss how past and present Muslim women have participated in the struggle for gender justice in Muslim communities and around the world The essays demonstrate a diversity of methodological approaches religious and secular sources and theoretical frameworks for understanding Muslim negotiations of gender norms and practices Part I Concepts puts into conversation women scholars who define Muslima theology and Islamic feminism vis vis secular notions of gender diversity and discuss the deployment of the oppression of Muslim women as a hegemonic imperialist strategy The chapters in Part II Sources engage with the Qur'an hadith and sunna as religious sources to be examined and reinterpreted in the quest for gender justice as God's will and the example of the Prophet Muhammad In Part III Histories contributors search for Muslim women's agency as scholars thinkers and activists from the early period of Islam to the present from Southeast Asia to North America Representing a transnational and cross generational conversation this work will be a key resource to students and scholars interested in the history of Islamic feminism Muslim women gender justice and Islam

Performing Islam Azam Torab, 2007 Performing Islam focuses on a wide spectrum of ritual activities in Iran today as a key for elucidating social cultural and political processes but in particular the values and beliefs underpinning gender constructions in a rapidly changing complex society

Islam and Gender Ziba Mir-Hosseini, 1999-12-05 Following the Islamic Revolution of 1979 and the re introduction of Sharia law relating to gender and the family women's rights in Iran suffered a major setback However as the implementers of the law have faced the social realities of women's lives and aspirations positive changes have gradually come about Here Ziba Mir Hosseini takes us to the heart of the growing debates concerning the ways in which justice for women should be achieved Through a series of lively interviews with clerics in the Iranian religious center of Qom she seeks to understand the varying notions of gender that inform Islamic jurisprudence and to explore how clerics today perpetuate and modify these notions Mir Hosseini finds three main approaches to the issue insistence on traditional patriarchal interpretations based on complementarity but inequality between women and men attempts to introduce balance into traditional interpretations or a radical rethinking of the jurisprudential constructions of gender She introduces the debates among the commentators by examining key passages in both written and oral texts and by narrating her meetings and discussions with the authors Unique in its approach and its subject matter the book relates Mir Hosseini's engagement as a Muslim woman and a social anthropologist educated and working in the West with Shii i Muslim thinkers of various backgrounds and views In the literature on women in Islam there is no account of such a face to face encounter either between religion and gender politics or between the two genders

Gender and Islam in Southeast Asia Susanne Schroeter, 2013-06-13 The volume is the first comprehensive compilation of texts on gender constructions normative gender orders and their religious legitimizations as well as current gender policies in Islamic Southeast Asia which besides the Islamic core countries of Malaysia and Indonesia also comprises southern Thailand and Mindanao the Philippines The authors trace the impact of national development programmes modernization globalization and political conflicts on the local and national gender regimes in the twentieth century and elaborate on the consequences of the revitalization of a conservative type of Islam The book thus elucidates the boundary lines of cultural and political processes of negotiation related to state society and community It employs a broad analytical framework offers rich empirical data and gives new insights into current debates on gender and Islam Contributors include Nelly van Doorn Harder Farish A Noor Siti Musdah

Mulia Amporn Marddent Maila Stivens Alexander Horstmann Amina Rasul Bernardo Monika Arnez Susanne Schr ter Nurul Ilmi Idrus Vivienne S M Angeles and Birte Brecht Drouart A World of Difference Julie Marcus, 1992 Islamic Interpretive Tradition and Gender Justice Nevin Reda, Yasmin Amin, 2020-12-10 Since the 1980s Muslim women reformers have made great strides in critiquing and reinterpreting the Islamic tradition Yet these achievements have not produced a significant shift in the lived experience of Islam particularly with respect to equality and justice in Muslim families A new approach is needed one that examines the underlying instruments of tradition and explores avenues for effecting change In Islamic Interpretive Tradition and Gender Justice leading intellectuals and emerging researchers grapple with the problem of entrenched positions within Islam that affect women investigating the processes by which interpretations become authoritative the theoretical foundations upon which they stand and the ways they have been used to inscribe and enforce gender limitations Together they argue that the Islamic interpretive tradition displays all the trappings of canonical texts canonical figures and canon law despite the fact that Islam does not ordain religious authorities who could sanction processes of canonization Through this lens the essays in this collection offer insights into key issues in Islamic feminist scholarship ranging from interreligious love child marriage polygamy and divorce to stoning segregation seclusion and gender hierarchies Rooting their analysis in the primary texts and historical literature of Islam contributors to Islamic Interpretive Tradition and Gender Justice contest oppressive interpretative canons subvert classical methodologies and provide new directions in the ongoing project of revitalizing Islamic exegesis and its ethical and legal implications

Performing Islam Azam Torab, 2006 Women Embracing Islam Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2006-07-01 Many Westerners view Islam as a religion that restricts and subordinates women in both private and public life Yet a surprising number of women in Western Europe and America are converting to Islam What attracts these women to a belief system that is markedly different from both Western Christianity and Western secularism What benefits do they gain by converting and what are the costs How do Western women converts live their new Islamic faith and how does their conversion affect their families and communities How do women converts transmit Islamic values to their children These are some of the questions that Women Embracing Islam seeks to answer In this vanguard study of gender and conversion to Islam leading historians sociologists anthropologists and theologians investigate why non Muslim women in the United States several European countries and South Africa are converting to Islam Drawing on extensive interviews with female converts the authors explore the life experiences that lead Western women to adopt Islam as well as the appeal that various forms of Islam as well as the Nation of Islam have for women The authors find that while no single set of factors can explain why Western women are embracing Islamic faith traditions some common motivations emerge These include an attraction to Islam's high regard for family and community its strict moral and ethical standards and the rationality and spirituality of its theology as well as a disillusionment with Christianity and with the unrestrained sexuality of so much of Western culture
