Islamic State's Online Propaganda Miron Lakomy, 2021-04-28 Explaining the means utilised by the editors of the Islamic State's online magazines to win the hearts and minds of their audiences this book is a result of a multidimensional content analysis of two flagship periodicals of the Islamic State Dabiq and Rumiyah Drawing from a number of theoretical concepts in propaganda studies the research uses comparative analysis to understand the evolution of the modus operandi employed by the editorial staff The volume evaluates the types of arguments used in these magazines as well as the emotions and behaviour that these triggered in readers This book concentrates on the formats and thematic composition of a variety of the Islamic State's e periodicals including Dabiq Rumiyah Dar al Islam or Konstantiniyye from the viewpoint of the constantly changing strategic situation and priorities of the Caliphate The e magazines of the post territorial phase of the Islamic State e g From Dabiq to Rome and Youth of the Caliphate were also taken into consideration Overall this book does not only offer new insights into the propaganda methods of the Islamic State s periodicals but it also summarises their rise and fall between 2014 and 2019 The volume is dedicated mostly to academics and postgraduate students specialised in terrorism studies political violence and security studies

Poetics of Islamic Historiography Boaz Shoshan,2004-10-01 This book exposes the mimetic assumption involved in early Islamic historiography its literary practice and whatever subverts it as reflected in abar s History Four major events in the history of early Islam are then subject to analysis based on literary criticism and are shown to produce a new meaning

Islamic Public Law - Islamic Law in Theory and Practice Ahmed Akgunduz,2011-11-01 Islamic law contains explications and divisions that imply a classification in terms of public and private law In this book we will explain the outlines of Islamic public law e g First Chapter Islamic constitutional law al siy sah al shar iyyah and administrative law al siy sah al shar iyyah Second Chapter penal law al uq b t Third Chapter financial law zak t ushr ar j and other taxes Fourth Chapter trial law qa and Fifth Chapter international public law al siyar The fields of especially Islamic constitutional law administrative law financial law ta z r penalties and arrangements concerning military law based on the restricted legislative authority vested by Shar ah rules and those jurisprudential decrees based on secondary sources like customs and traditions and the public good maslahah all fell under what was variously called public law al siy sah al shar iyyah Shar ah policy q n n legal code q n nn mah orf uq q etc Since these laws could not go beyond Shar ah principles either at least in theory they should not be regarded as a legal system outside of Islamic law But Islamic penal law financial law trial law and international law depend mostly on rules that are based directly on the Qur an and the Sunnah and codified in books of fiqh Islamic law called Shar ah rules Shar i shar f or Shar ah law Such rules formed 85% of the legal system In this book we will focus on some controversial problems in the Muslim world today such as the form of government in Islamic law and the relation between Islam and democracy Islamic law does not stipulate a certain method of state government nonetheless we may say that the principles it decrees and its concept of sovereignty suggest a religious republic As a matter of fact ulaf al R shid n the Rightly Guided Caliphs were both caliphs and religious republican presidents We could say that this book has three main characteristics i We have tried to base our explanations directly on the primary Islamic law sources For example after reading some articles on the caliphate or t m r system in articles or books by some Western scholars and even by some Muslim scholars one might conclude that there are different views on these subjects among Muslim scholars This is not true Muslisms have agreed on the basic rules on legal subjects but there are some conflicts regarding nuances and interpretations If one reads works by Im m Gazzali Ibn Taymiyyah al M wardi and al Farr one will not find any disagreement on the main rules but there are some different interpretations of some concepts We have tried to discover where they agreed and we have sometimes pointed to where they differed ii We have researched practices of Islamic law especially legal documents in the Ottoman archives For example we explain add i sariqa but also mention some legal articles from the Ottoman legal codes q nunn mes and some Shar ah court decisions like legal decrees i l m t i shar iyyah It is well known that nobody can understand any legal system without implementing and practicing it That also holds for Islamic law because theory alone does not yield a complete understanding of Shar ah rules iii We have worked hard to correct some misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islamic law That is why we appeal to the primary sources For example some scholars claim that the anaf jurist Im m Sara s did not accept the idea of punishment for apostasy We have studied his work al Mabs t and found this claim to be unfounded The comparison between t m r and fief is another example because the t m r system is different from the fief system Some scholars confuse the concept of sovereignty and governance The Islamic state is not a theocratic state in the sense in which Europeans understand the term

Evidence for the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ Examined through Islamic Law Suheil Madanat,2023-08-31 For almost 1 400 years Christians have wrestled with appropriate ways to defend their claims to truth in the context of Islam Dr Suheil Madanat proposes that the answer lies neither in the antagonization of polemics nor apologetic arguments rooted in Western legal systems but instead in utilizing the authority of Islamic law itself While evidence for the resurrection has been legally examined since the seventeenth century legal apologetics has primarily utilized secular law systems such as Anglo American common law In this study Dr Madanat tests evidence for the crucifixion and resurrection against Islam s fixed theocratic law of Sharia Offering an overview of the evolution and constitution of Islamic law Dr Madanat examines how eyewitness testimonies and confessions in the New Testament hold up against Islam s strict standards for evidence Authenticating the Gospels using the same standards Islamic scholars use to defend the authenticity of the Qur an and Sunna Madanat examines the testimonies of the four evangelists the confessions of James and Paul and the circumstantial evidence offered by archeology church history and the Christian impact on civilization This book engages with Islam and its sacred texts seriously and with respect providing a powerful resource for those interested in apologetics and comparative religion

Governing Islam Julia Stephens,2018-06-21 Governing Islam traces the colonial roots of contemporary struggles between Islam and secularism in India Pakistan and Bangladesh The book uncovers the paradoxical workings of colonial laws that promised to separate secular and religious spheres but instead fostered their vexed entanglement It shows how religious laws governing families became embroiled with secular laws governing markets and how calls to protect religious liberties clashed with freedom of the press By following these interactions Stephens asks us to reconsider where law is and what it is Her narrative weaves between state courts Islamic fatwas on ritual performance and intimate marital disputes to reveal how deeply law penetrates everyday life In her hands law also serves many masters from British officials to Islamic jurists to aggrieved Muslim wives The resulting study shows how the neglected field of

Muslim law in South Asia is essential to understanding current crises in global secularism A Concise Guide to the Quran Ayman S. Ibrahim, 2020-11-03 What is so unique about Islam's scripture the Quran Who wrote it and when Can we trust its statements to be from Muhammad Why was it written in Arabic Does it command Muslims to fight Christians These are a few of the thirty questions answered in this clear and concise guide to the history and contents of the Quran Ayman Ibrahim grew up in the Muslim world and has spent many years teaching various courses on Islam Using a question and answer format Ibrahim covers critical questions about the most sacred book for Muslims He examines Muslim and non Muslim views concerning the Quran shows how the Quran is used in contemporary expressions of Islam answers many of the key questions non Muslims have about the Quran and Islam and reveals the importance of understanding the Quran for Christian Muslim and Jewish Muslim interfaith relations This introductory guide is written for anyone with little to no knowledge of Islam who wants to learn about Muslims their beliefs and their scripture Islam Mike Gordon, 2009-08-15 Understanding Islam provides a succinct authoritative and accessible introduction to one of the world's great religious traditions The subjects covered include the Prophet and his teachings the Quran Hadith and Sharia law the history of the Islamic empire madrasas and jihad Shia and Sunni Islam the Five Pillars art and divinity Mecca mosques and mihrabs angels jinns and holy men and secular nationalism and Islamic revivalism The author is an Associate Professor in the Dept of History at Miami University of Ohio and a published author and editor His completed and planned publications include works on Islam and Franco Arab encounters and on the Turkish community in 9th century Samarra Islam, Security and Television News C. Flood, S. Hutchings, G. Miazhevich, H. Nickels, 2012-05-08 Focusing on British French and Russian television news coverage of Islam as a security threat this book provides the first comparative account of how television broadcasting in different geo and socio political environments integrates discourses on Islam into nationally oriented representational systems Authority, Conflict, and the Transmission of Diversity in Medieval Islamic Law Kevin Jaques, 2006-04-01 This book looks at al-baq'at al-fuqah al-shafi'iyah by Ibn Q Shuhbah d 851 1448 and how its author attempted to portray the development of the Shafi school of law up to his own times The volume examines the impact of crises on the formation of the al-baq'at genre It demonstrates how al-baq'at dedicated to explicating religious authority were used by authors to sort out challenges to intellectual orthodoxies It also examines in detail the al-baq'at directly demonstrating Ibn Q Shuhbah's depiction of the development of Shafi law the formation of intellectual sub schools within the madhhab the causes of legal decline and curatives for the decline that are to be found in the great Shafi Ikhtilaf divergent opinion texts the Az-zhar al-wajiz by al-Rafi and the Rawt al-libn by al-Nawaw Writing History in the Medieval Islamic World Fozia Bora, 2019-06-13 In the encyclopaedic fourteenth century Arabic chronicles produced in Mamluk cities bore textual witness to both recent and bygone history including that of the Fatimids 969 1171CE For in two centuries of rule over Egypt and North Africa the Ismaili Fatimids had left few self generated historiographical records Instead it fell to Ayyubid and Mamluk historians to represent the dynasty to posterity This monograph sets out to explain how later historians preserved interpreted and re organised earlier textual sources Mamluk historians engaged in a sophisticated archival practice within historiography rather than uncritically reproducing earlier reports In a new diplomatic edition translation and analysis of Mamluk historian Ibn al Furat s account of late Fatimid rule in The History of Dynasties and Kings a widely known but barely copied universal chronicle of Islamic history Fozia Bora traces the survival of historiographical narratives from Fatimid Egypt Through Ibn al Furat s text Bora demonstrates archivality as the heuristic key to Mamluk historical writing This book is essential for all scholars working on the written culture and history of the medieval Islamic world and paves the way for a more nuanced reading of pre modern Arabic chronicles and of the epistemic environment in which they were produced Patronate And Patronage in Early And Classical Islam Monique Bernards, John Abdallah Nawas, 2005 This book deals with patronate and patronage wal of early and classical Islam Though Webster s Third has the term mawla the concept remains very difficult to come to grips with Fourteen contributions by renowned scholars analyze the social and cultural phenomenon of wal from various angles As a whole the book conveys what we presently know about patronate and patronage during the first four centuries of Islam Inasmuch as the contributors have used different methods from a close rereading of primary sources to the application of social theory and quantitative analysis the book additionally offers an overview of methodologies current in the field of Islamic Studies Islam in Historical Perspective Alexander Knysh, 2024-09-30 Islam in Historical Perspective is a general introduction to Islam and the history of Muslim societies Richly illustrated by quotations and images from Muslim scripture historical chronicles artistic works and theological and juridical treatises it invites the reader to examine this evidence and to form a comprehensive understanding of Islam s evolution from its inception in Arabia to the present day Combining chronological and thematic principles this book examines Muslims political and intellectual struggles over the meaning and practical implications of their faith Treating Islam as a language that various factions and generations of Muslims have used to express their grievances aspirations and personal experiences and preferences the book shows the religion s remarkable potency as a social political and cultural force and source of identity It also describes and analyses Muslim devotional practices emotional responses to the revelation artistic and intellectual creativity and patterns of everyday existence The goal of this book is to help the reader to develop personal empathy for the subject by showing the relevance of the dilemmas faced by Muslims in different epochs and geographical locations to the burning issues of today s world A thorough analysis of pivotal events trends and personalities of Islamic history is accompanied by witness accounts showing how they were perceived by Muslims themselves This new edition features a thoroughly revised text updated bibliography new illustrations study questions and chapter summaries and is an outstanding resource for students of Islam and Muslim civilization Gender in Judaism and Islam Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet, Beth S. Wenger, 2015 This book addresses a range of topics including gendered readings of texts legal issues in marriage and divorce ritual practices and women s literary expressions along with feminist influences within the Muslim and Jewish communities and issues affecting Jewish and Muslim women in contemporary society The volume focuses attention on the theoretical innovations that gender scholarship has brought to the study of Muslim and Jewish experiences At a time when Judaism and Islam are often discussed as though they were inherently at odds this book offers a reconsideration of the connections between these two traditions Is the Bangladesh Paradox Sustainable? Selim Raihan,François Bourguignon,Umar Salam,2024-01-18 Bangladesh is widely seen as a paradox Over the last quarter of a century it has maintained economic growth and has outperformed many countries on social indicators while scoring very low on the quality of governance Moreover its economic progress does not seem to indicate significant improvement in comparative institutional indicators Is the Bangladesh Paradox Sustainable thus examines whether such a paradoxical combination can be sustained in the long run if growth continues with no improvement in the quality of institutions It argues that although Bangladesh has become the second largest world exporter in the garments export diversification is needed both within and outside the garment sector if it is to maintain its development pace Based on a thorough account of the country s economic social and political development this companion volume analyzes Bangladesh s critical institution and development sensitive areas such as the garment sector banking taxation land management the judiciary and education This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core The Death of a Prophet Stephen J. Shoemaker,2011-11-29 The oldest Islamic biography of Muhammad written in the mid eighth century relates that the prophet died at Medina in 632 while earlier and more numerous Jewish Christian Samaritan and even Islamic sources indicate that Muhammad survived to lead the conquest of Palestine beginning in 634 35 Although this discrepancy has been known for several decades Stephen J Shoemaker here writes the first systematic study of the various traditions Using methods and perspectives borrowed from biblical studies Shoemaker concludes that these reports of Muhammad s leadership during the Palestinian invasion likely preserve an early Islamic tradition that was later revised to meet the needs of a changing Islamic self identity Muhammad and his followers appear to have expected the world to end in the immediate future perhaps even in their own lifetimes Shoemaker contends When the eschatological Hour failed to arrive on schedule and continued to be deferred to an ever more distant point the meaning of Muhammad s message and the faith that he established needed to be fundamentally rethought by his early followers The larger purpose of The Death of a Prophet exceeds the mere possibility of adjusting the date of Muhammad s death by a few years far more important to Shoemaker are questions about the manner in which Islamic origins should be studied The difference in the early sources affords an important opening through which to explore the nature of primitive Islam more broadly Arguing for greater methodological unity between the study of Christian and Islamic origins Shoemaker emphasizes the potential value of non Islamic sources for reconstructing the history of formative Islam A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM'S ORIGINS Gabriel Aryeh,2024-01-24 A BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE ON ISLAM After several interactions with Muslims of distinct sects in the Bronx community NYC schools and the workplace through the decades Aryeh observed how some professing Christians were led to believe in the Islamic claim of Muhammad s legitimacy as a prophet Although a few maintained the belief that Jesus remained holy as a prophet they suggested he was a mere man and abandoned their past confessions regarding his divinity Nevertheless the more astounding claim many ex Christians and Muslims made suggested that the Jewish and Christian God found in the Bible identified as the same deity of the Qur an Hence these claims above initiated the primary reasons for delving deep into the study of Islam and writing this book for the sake of not only reaching many believers who erred from Christianity but the Muslims who believed that Allah identified as the God of the Jews and Christians Indeed the enormous task of disproving Islam as an extension of the Abrahamic faith required many investigations into the questions raised by such astonishing claims This book makes deep inquiries into the historical and theological assertions found in the Islamic faith concerning Allah Muhammad and the religious practices observed today which have survived for little over fourteen centuries Consequentially the unfortunate misconceptions taught about Islam in many church pulpits since the early days of this researcher s youth stemmed from books found in academia and some Christian libraries which promoted a worldwide narrative by selective favorable historical accounts based on political ideologies instead of rigorous theological investigation The Christian perspective on Islam examines the theological origins of the Islamic faith by first investigating the geographical locations alleged as the nascent religion s early beginnings by exploring the historical and societal development of the Arab peoples Second this book probes the legitimacy of Muhammad as a divinely ordered prophet by consulting the Judaic traditions derived from the Jewish Scriptures explaining the qualifications of authentic prophethood Finally the sequential order of inquiry laid out above will highlight the emergence of the theology and residual religious rituals observed today in the Islamic world and therefore conclusively demonstrate that Islam remains unaligned with its Jewish and Christian predecessors
