So What Do They Really Know? Cris Tovani, 2023-10-10 So What Do They Really Know Cris Tovani explores the complex issue of monitoring assessing and grading students thinking and performance with fairness and fidelity Like all teachers Cris struggles to balance her student centered instruction with school system mandates Her recommendations are realistic and practical she understands that what isn't manageable isn't sustainable Cris describes the systems and structure she uses in her own classroom and shows teachers how to use assessments to monitor student growth and provide targeted feedback that enables students to master content goals She also shares ways to bring students into the assessment cycle so they can monitor their own learning maximizing motivation and engagement So What Do They Really Know includes a wealth of information Lessons from Cris's classroom Templates showing how teachers can use the workshop model to assess and differentiate instruction Student work including samples from linguistically diverse learners struggling readers and college bound seniors Anchor charts of student thinking Ideas on how to give feedback Guidelines that explain how conferring is different from monitoring Suggestions for assessing learning and differentiating instruction during conferences Advice for managing ongoing assessment Cris's willingness to share her own struggles continues to be a hallmark of her work Teachers will recognize their own students and the challenges they face as they join Cris on the journey to figure out how to raise student achievement

Urban Teaching in America Andrea J. Stairs, Kelly A. Donnell, Alyssa Hadley Dunn, 2012 This book provides undergraduate and graduate students in education with an overview of urban teaching Organized around eight authentic questions it offers pre service and in service teachers opportunities for critical reflection and problem posing not often seen in comparable course texts This text supports staff who are looking for increasingly creative approaches to exploring key educational issues with their students

It's Not "One More Thing" Anne Swenson Ticknor, Christy Howard, Mikkaka Overstreet, 2021-07-01 Ticknor Howard and Overstreet offer educators insights into the how tos of culturally responsive pedagogy They build on their experiences and research of CRP to offer vignettes of literacy instruction that may be common in K 12 classrooms These examples are offered as a way to situate how teachers may use research based and effective literacy practices while ignoring the identities and experiences of their students They disrupt the vignettes using theories and concepts presented in the chapter to make visible how each practice could be reimaged to integrate more culturally responsive strategies Example lessons and activities are provided in each chapter that offer readers glimpses into CRP thinking and decision making Guiding prompts are also included for readers to use the chapter topic and example lessons to consider ways to be more culturally responsive teachers for their students and in their local communities
