Is Terrorism A Muslim Monopoly:

As Terrorism Evolves Philip Seib, 2017-10-05 Some of the world's most lethal terrorist organizations have become media-centric enterprises while also hijacking a major world religion holding large swathes of physical territory and governing their own virtual states. In this concise and penetrating book Seib traces how terrorism has proliferated and increased significantly in menace in the relatively brief period between the rise of al Qaeda and the creation of Islamic State. With close attention to the linkages between media, religion and violence, the book offers incisive analysis of how organizations such as Islamic State, al Qaeda and Boko Haram operate and reflects on how terrorism may continue to evolve. Seib argues that twenty-first century terrorism is enabled by new media and depends on social networks as connective tissue while interacting simultaneously with religion and socio-economic and political grievances. As Terrorism Evolves prescribes new measures for counterterrorism efforts, underscores the importance of soft power and makes a strong case for recognizing that we have entered an era of terrorism of undetermined duration.

Decoding Intolerance: Riots and the Emergence of Terrorism in India Prateep K. Lahiri, Kuldip Nayar, 2009-10-01 The rioting in Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh in 1961 was a watershed event for India. After the Partition, it was the first time such large-scale communal violence had taken place. The author, Prateep K. Lahiri, on his first posting, was involved in bringing the situation under control. Some time later, in 1969, as district magistrate of Indore, Lahiri played a key role in dealing with the outbreak of communal violence in that city. While the violence in both instances appeared to have been spontaneously provoked by an incident, just like in Gujarat in 2002, the reasons that later emerged for the rioting revealed the deeper malaise that continues to affect our social system. Decoding Intolerance: Riots and the Emergence of Terrorism in India is a significant book by an administrator who has observed the minutiae of the crisis from close quarters and scrutinized the role of the police and the state administration. The author synthesizes various dimensions of the issue, including the changing perceptions of Indian Muslims in the recent past, the history of religious fundamentalism and how it manifests as communal unrest both in India and elsewhere. The phenomenon of terrorism, which has reared its ugly head over India and the world, is also touched upon to understand the implications it has had on the shifting political scenario. Decoding Intolerance critically analyzes the recurrence of communal violence and offers a persuasive argument about the problem with a focus on its prevention in the future.

Arabs and Muslims in the Media Evelyn Alsultany, 2012-08-20 After 9/11, there was an increase in both the incidence of hate crimes and government policies that targeted Arabs and Muslims, and the proliferation of sympathetic portrayals of Arabs and Muslims in the U.S. media. Arabs and Muslims in the Media examines this paradox and investigates the increase of sympathetic images of the enemy during the War on Terror. Evelyn Alsultany explains that a new standard in racial and cultural representations emerged out of the multicultural movement of the 1990s that involves balancing a negative representation with a positive one, what she refers to as simplified complex representations. This has meant that if the storyline of a TV drama or film represents an Arab or Muslim as a terrorist then the storyline also includes a positive representation of an Arab Muslim Arab American or Muslim American to offset the potential stereotype Analyzing how TV dramas such as The Practice 24 Law and Order NYPD Blue and Sleeper Cell news reporting and non profit advertising have represented Arabs Muslims Arab Americans and Muslim Americans during the War on Terror this book demonstrates how more diverse representations do not in themselves solve the problem of racial stereotyping and how even seemingly positive images can produce meanings that can justify exclusion and inequality

The United States, International Law and the Struggle against Terrorism Thomas McDonnell,2023-05-09 This book discusses the critical legal issues raised by the US responses to the terrorist threat analyzing the actions taken by the Bush administration during the so called war on terrorism and their compliance with international law Thomas McDonnell highlights specific topics of legal interest including torture extra judicial detentions and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq and examines them against the backdrop of terrorist movements which have plagued Britain and Russia The book extrapolates from the actions of the USA going on to look at the difficulties all modern democracies face in trying to combat international terrorism This book demonstrates why current counter terrorism practices and policies should be rejected and new policies adopted that are compatible with international law Written for students of law academics and policy makers the volume demonstrates the dangers that breaking international law carries in the war on terrorism

Jihad in the Context of Contemporary Terrorism Mohamed Elamin Elbushra Mahgoub,2022-03-29 ABSTRACT Since September 11 2001 Western scholars classified the study of Islamic Jihad as one of the most important disciplines to be examined They began to review the relevant original sources of

Islam in depth Many efforts were made by those scholars to understand The Quran holy book of all Muslims looking for evidence that might support existing links between Islamic Jihad and the contemporary terroristic activities if any On the other hand Muslim scholars and politicians have condemned all patterns of the contemporary terrorism and have repeatedly confirmed the fact that Islam is a religion of peace mercy and justice Muslim scholars routinely provide positive evidence from The Quran and other Islamic sources to support the quality of Islamic teachings and guidelines However Muslim scholars and politicians have never attempted to comment or thoroughly elaborate such evidence or Quranic verses related to Jihad and fighting for the Cause of Allah as pointed out by non Muslim scholars The dilemma facing Muslim scholars and politicians is not only to assure the quality of Islamic teachings or to quote Quranic verses which are not readily visible in most of the Islamic communities of today The real dilemma is to provide satisfactory explanations and a uniform concept of Jihad or fighting for the Cause of Allah based on such variable sources The challenge facing Muslim Scholars is adopting a common understanding on Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah It is urgent to determine whether Jihad or Fighting for the Cause of Allah is defensive or offensive and to what extent Whom are the targets of Jihad and fighting for the Cause of Allah How and who is responsible in managing Jihad and Fighting Affares What is the responsibility of the Islamic countries in combating Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah as far as they are obliged by the international laws Does Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah constitute a threat to International peace and security This study provides an outline for the concept of Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah from the perspective of the Muslim scholars and non Muslim scholars The intention of this study is inviting or even provoking Muslim scholars to provide well established defense and come together with a uniform response that might create a favorable environment for all Muslims first and for the human being second This study is an attempt to Enhance the adoption of a uniform understanding of Islamic Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah and enforce such understanding among the Muslims first Provide a unanimously acceptable explanation of the Quranic verses related to Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah Underline available Quranic and Sunna evidence that might nullify any allegations against Jihad and Fighting non Muslims in the context of the contemporary thinking of western scholars Finally to determine how far Islamic Jihad and Fighting for the Cause of Allah is a religious worshipping and does not constitute any form of threat or terror for non Muslims By highlighting the controversial opinions of Muslim and non Muslim scholars this study may provide grounds to distinguish between Islamic Jihad and contemporary terroristic activities and political violence

Muslims, Schooling and Security Shamim Miah, 2017-03-20 This book focuses on the recent educational policy debates surrounding Muslims schooling and the question of security in light of the Counter Terrorism Security Act which has made Prevent a legal duty for schools colleges and universities The book examines the infamous Trojan Horse affair in Birmingham and critically evaluates the security discourses in light of theoretical insights from the study of racial politics The sociology of race and schooling in the UK has long been associated with a number of diverse areas of study including racial inequality multiculturalism citizenship and identity however until very recently very little attention has been given to securitization and race within the context of education and even less focus has been given to the links between the question of security and racial politics This book makes a much needed and timely contribution to debates on the complex relationship between racial politics and schooling and will make compelling reading for students and researchers in the fields of education and sociology as well as education policy makers

The Colorblind Screen Sarah Nilsen, Sarah E. Turner, 2014-04-04 In The Colorblind Screen the contributors examine television's role as the major discursive medium in the articulation and contestation of racialized identities in the United States While the dominant mode of televisual racialization has shifted to a colorblind ideology that foregrounds racial differences in order to celebrate multicultural assimilation the volume investigates how this practice denies the significant social economic and political realities and inequalities that continue to define race relations today Focusing on such iconic figures as President Obama LeBron James and Oprah Winfrey many chapters examine the ways in which race is read by television audiences and fans Other essays focus on how visual constructions of race in dramas like 24 Sleeper Cell and The Wanted continue to conflate Arab and Muslim identities in post 9 11 television The volume offers an important intervention in the study of the televisual representation of race engaging with multiple aspects of the mythologies developing around notions of a post racial America and the duplicitous discursive rationale offered by the ideology of colorblindness Publisher's website

Lives of Muslims in India Abdul Shaban, 2018-01-10 The fast consolidating identities along religious and ethnic lines in recent years have considerably minoritised Muslims in India The wide ranging essays in this volume focus on the intensified exclusionary practices against Indian Muslims highlighting how amidst a politics of violence confusing policy frameworks on caste and class lines and institutionalised riot systems the community has also suffered from the lack of leadership from within At the same time Indian Muslims have emerged as a mass around which the politics of vote bank appeasement foreigners Pakistanis within the country and so on are innovated and played upon making them further apprehensive about asserting their legitimate right to development The important issues of the double marginalisation of Muslim women and attempts to reform the Muslim Personal Law by some civil society groups is also discussed Contributed by academics activists and journalists the articles discuss issues of integration exclusion and violence and attempt to understand categories such as identity minority multiculturalism and nationalism with regard to and in the context of Indian Muslims This second edition with a new introduction will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in sociology politics history cultural studies minority studies Islamic studies policy studies and development studies as well as policymakers civil society activists and those in media and journalism
