Asian continent In this volume scholars from Indonesia and Australia come together to present their research findings and views on a broad range of topics From early periods these include observations on Ice Age climate life in caves and open sites rock art and the animals that humans exploited and lived alongside The archaeology presented from later periods covers the rise of the Bugis kingdom Chinese trade ceramics and a range of site based and regional topics from the Neolithic through to the arrival of Islam This carefully edited volume is the first to be devoted entirely to the archaeology of the island of Sulawesi and it lays down a baseline for significant future research Peter Bellwood Emeritus Professor The Australian National University

Dutch Reformed Orthodoxy and Islam Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva,2025-03-10 However turbulent and virulent Christian Muslim Relations may have been throughout the centuries it does not mean that each side did not take the time to evaluate and appreciate each other s theological dogmas Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva shows that although Christians were subjected to constant attacks and invasions by the Turks for multiple centuries they eventually Early Modern Period sought to refine their thinking about Islam and evaluate its theological tenets in a semi dispassionate form and to provide a large scale reply In the Medieval period in depth analysis of Islam from a purely theological philosophical point of view were rare Most publications frequently resorted to the use of offensive and inaccurate language which at times fomented a disagreement between the parties based not on real theological differences besides the obvious political differences but on imagined ones This volume shows that Post Reformation Reformed Orthodox theologians especially those from the Dutch Republic after having access to a long legacy of Christian Muslim written publications collected by Dutch Universities were able to build much more refined arguments and indeed present well informed apologetical theological and historical arguments against Islam The author also shows that the intense commerce between Christian and Islamic nations and the contemporary flourishing of orientalist studies in the Dutch Universities contributed to the formation of an intellectual arena that was willing to overlook past animosities and focus on the theological differences addressing them as such

Asian Perspectives on Education: Inclusivity and Diversity Jie Zhang,Natalie Sarrazin,2025-01-07 The idea of Asia is contested in the literature as a concept in terms of unification in any sense e g regionally economically and politically see Duara 1995 2019 Acharya 2010 which makes a book of this nature challenging The use of inclusion and diversity as a lens of discovery is not only synchronically topical but provides an important outlet for unheard voices and marginalized perspectives otherwise silenced or ignored in education and Asian literature The lens by which the book is written combines multiple streams of diversity and inclusion with that of K 12 and higher education in an Asian context and it allows room for individual Asian voices and perspectives both in and outside the classroom Inspired by a panel presented at the 2021 New York Conference on Asian Studies NYCAS on the very topic of inclusivity and diversity in Asian education the book broadened the original focus from the COVID centered to one that allowed the exploration of a wider geographic area and cultural area as well as new subjects Moreover our text includes a focus on individuals with disabilities multicultural education and cross disciplinary efforts across cultures This book covers broader topics regarding inclusivity and diversity in education from multiple Asian perspectives and ranges from various educational levels that is elementary secondary and post secondary institutions different school settings that is public and private schools and a variety of Asian countries and areas that is Bangladesh China India Indonesia Japan Jordan and Taiwan This book gives a well rounded representation of the issues through theoretical focus practical applications and research studies contributed by authors from various international institutions and countries or countries of origin including Bangladesh China Germany India Indonesia Japan Jordan and the United States

Communities of the Qur'an Emran Iqbal El-Badawi, Paula Sanders, 2019-06-06 What is the nature of the Qur'an It might seem a straightforward question but there is no consensus among modern communities of the Qur'an both Muslim and non Muslim about the answer And why should there be On numerous occasions throughout history believers from different schools and denominations and at different times and places have agreed to disagree The Qur'anic interpreters jurists and theologians of medieval Baghdad Cairo and Cordoba coexisted peacefully in spite of their diverging beliefs Seeking to revive this ethics of disagreement of Classical Islam this volume explores the different relationships societies around the world have with the Qur'an and how our understanding of the text can be shaped by studying the interpretations of others From LGBT groups to urban African American communities this book aims to represent the true diversity of communities of the Qur'an in the twenty first century and the dialogue and debate that can flow among them

Guilt, 2021-12-08 Since the end of the 20th century social movements around the world have called for accountability and reparation for past harms particularly harms committed by states against various minority groups This volume argues that guilt is a productive force that helps to balance unequal power dynamics between individuals and groups With chapters bridging the social sciences law and humanities chapter authors examine the role and function of guilt in society and present case studies from seven national contexts

A Political Biography of the Indonesian Lesbian, Bisexual and Trans Movement Saskia Wieringa, 2024-04-04 Here the history of the Indonesian LBT movement is charted from invisibility to visibility and now as it moves again into hiding In the early 1980s during the oppressive military dictatorship called the New Order in Indonesia the first organizations of Lesbian Bisexual and Trans persons were established They were short lived but prepared the ground for a more comprehensive LBT rights movement after the democratic opening of society in 1998 From 2000 to 2015 the visibility of the movement grew until a vicious state sponsored backlash set in driven by majoritarian fundamentalist Islamist groups Saskia Wieringa tracks the movement s progress and explores the persistence of the butch femme model of relationships the proliferations of identities family violence and conversion therapy religion and the anti LGBT campaign In its insistence on the local dynamics of this movement the book aims to debunk the idea that homosexuality is a Western import Chapters deal with the many religious and secular phenomena that are linked with gender diversity and same sex relations traditionally and the erasure of many of these traditions is explained using the concept of postcolonial amnesia A Political Biography of the Indonesian Lesbian Bisexual and Trans Movement is also a contribution to the growing literature on decolonization studies pointing out that its dynamics its historical course and its present condition different as they are from the dominant Western view on a global LGBT movement needs to be considered as valuable as accounts of Western LGBT histories are

Piety and Public Opinion Thomas B. Pepinsky, R. William Liddle, Saiful Mujani, 2018-01-02 Across the Muslim world religion plays an increasingly prominent role in both the private and public lives of over a billion people Observers of these changes struggle to understand the consequences of an Islamic resurgence in a democratizing world Will democratic political participation by an increasingly religious population lead to victories by Islamists at the ballot box Will more conspicuously pious Muslims participate in politics and markets in a fundamentally different way than they had previously Will a renewed attention to Islam lead Muslim democracies to reevaluate their place in the global community of states turning away from alignments with the West or the Global South and towards an Islamic civilizational identity The answers to all of these questions depend at least in part on what ordinary Muslims think and do In order to provide these answers the authors of this book look to Indonesia the world s largest Muslim country and one of the world s only consolidated Muslim democracies They draw on original public opinion data to explore how religiosity and religious belief translate into political and economic behavior at the individual level Across various issue areas support for democracy or Islamic law partisan politics Islamic finance views about foreign engagement they find no evidence that the religious orientations of Indonesian Muslims have any systematic relationships with their political preferences or economic behavior The broad conclusion is that scholars of Islam in Indonesia and elsewhere must understand religious life and individual piety as part of a larger and more complex set of social transformations These transformations include modernization economic development and globalization each of which has occurred in parallel with Islamic revivalism throughout the world Against the common assumption that piety would naturally inhibit any tendencies towards modernity democracy or cosmopolitanism Piety and Public Opinion reveals the complex and subtle links between religion and political beliefs in a critically important

Muslim democracy The True Face of Islam Nurcholish Majid,2003 The Makings of Indonesian Islam Michael Laffan,2011-08-08 Indonesian Islam is often portrayed as being intrinsically moderate by virtue of the role that mystical Sufism played in shaping its traditions According to Western observers from Dutch colonial administrators and orientalist scholars to modern anthropologists such as the late Clifford Geertz Indonesia s peaceful interpretation of Islam has been perpetually under threat from outside by more violent intolerant Islamic traditions that were originally imposed by conquering Arab armies The Makings of Indonesian Islam challenges this widely accepted narrative offering a more balanced assessment of the intellectual and cultural history of the most populous Muslim nation on Earth Michael Laffan traces how the popular image of Indonesian Islam was shaped by encounters between colonial Dutch scholars and reformist Islamic thinkers He shows how Dutch religious preoccupations sometimes echoed Muslim concerns about the relationship between faith and the state and how Dutch Islamic discourse throughout the long centuries of European colonialism helped give rise to Indonesia s distinctive national and religious culture The Makings of Indonesian Islam presents Islamic and colonial history as an integrated whole revealing the ways our understanding of Indonesian Islam both past and present came to be

Muslim in Indonesia and the Notion of the Islamic State Rohani binti Abdul Rahim,1991 Islam in Indonesia Aswab Mahasin,1985 The End of Innocence? Andrée Feillard,Rémy Madinier,2011 Long cited as a model of harmonious cohabitation between different religions the most populous Muslim country in the world until recently occupied a special place in the Western imagination Indonesia home to a peaceful version of Islam offered a reassuring counter model to a rowdy and accusatory Arab Islam Since 1999 however confrontations between Christians and Muslims in the Moluccas excesses of vigilantism in Sulawesi and especially the Bali and Jakarta bombings have shattered these simplistic stereotypes For many terrorism experts often self proclaimed Indonesia s mutation confirmed the hackneyed thesis that equated obscurantism with Islam and saw violent outbreaks as an inevitable consequence The End of Innocence is far removed from the hollow analyses underlying this essentialist thesis The book positions the evolution of Indonesian Islam in the broader context of the recent history of the archipelago and provides a rigorous analysis of the origins and causes of the radical temptation deciphering its simplistic ideology and showing how it has been nourished by political manipulation The authors both historians specialising in Indonesian Islam describe the hold of religious extremism as well as the strong resistance it has provoked in a country that has quickly become one of the key spots in the upheavals occurring throughout the Muslim world Publisher description Political Islam in Indonesia ,1987 Islam in Indonesia Giora Eliraz,2013-12 Provides a broader perspective about contemporary Islam in Indonesia through discussing two streams of thought and movements Islamic modernism and radical Islamic fundamentalism This book is suitable for understanding the comprehensive challenges posed by radical Islam in the Indonesian archipelago Religioscapes in Muslim Indonesia Claudia Seise,2017

Islam In Indonesia Contrasting Images And Interpretations Icas Publications: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Islam In Indonesia Contrasting Images And Interpretations Icas Publications : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
