Out-of-Field Teaching Across Teaching Disciplines and Contexts Linda Hobbs, Raphaela Porsch, 2022-02-18. This edited book is a compilation of research by the members of the Out of Field Teaching Across Specialisations OOF TAS Collective and is the second book by the Collective. It extends from the work begun in the 2019 book Examining the Phenomenon of Teaching Out of Field by showcasing the broad range of research agendas and findings relating to this phenomenon internationally. This book provides research and commentary relating to the out of field teaching phenomenon in primary, secondary and tertiary education and across different subjects. It provides snapshots of the effects, causes, measurement and other characteristics of out of field teaching in and across contexts including states and countries, school types and school levels, subjects and specializations. The different chapters provide commentary at different units of analysis and focus on the effects of out of field teaching for teachers and their students, the school contexts, cultures that do or do not support them, the leadership practices that assign the teachers to out of field subjects and the systems that create and perpetuate the need for out of field teaching assignments.
